GOSPEL REFLECTION

November 22, 2026
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Matthew 25:31-46

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced, and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.

Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love. Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.

Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us.

— Father John Muir

St. Clement Feast Day is Monday November 23d. Join us at 6:30pm for Evening Prayer at St. Clement with Fr. Scott followed by Lite Desserts and Hot Apple Cider

Pope Clement 1, also known as Saint Clement of Rome, served the early Christian Church during . 1st. Century AD. In approximately 100AD, Saint Clement 1 was banished to a work camp off the coast of the Crimean Sea (modern Ukraine). When he arrived at the camp, he was so successful in converting the laboring pagans that he was punished by being tied to an anchor and thrown off of a ship into the Crimean Sea. Relics are currently housed in the Basilica of St Clement in Rome. St Clement is recognized as the patron saint of Mariners, sailors, boatmen and stonecutters.

Holiday Mass Notice

On behalf of the parish staff, we would like to wish you and your families a very blessed Thanksgiving.

Please note that Mass for Thanksgiving will be celebrated at 9am at St. Clement Parish.

Explore the Christian faith and ask life's big questions in an open, welcoming space. Each session sparks conversation about faith, purpose, and meaning. Come and try it and see what you think! Alpha meets Tuesdays, January 5 – March 16, 2027, from 7 – 8:30p in McBride Hall at St. Luke Catholic Church, 1212 Bunts Road, Lakewood. Hearty snacks and refreshments will be served. #weGIVECATHOLIC with the Catholic Community Foundation December 2, 2025

St. Clement Parish

A few years ago, we celebrated our 100-year year anniversary which is a very proud milestone for our parish. Maintaining our parish is an important responsibility with on going expenses. This year we would like to focus on a few maintenance items such as the gathering area roof and the corresponding exterior wall, rectory roof flashing issues and the future replacement of our air conditioners. One of the two units is not currently functioning and we need to consider replacing both units. Other routine projects include the maintenance of the grounds such as our parking lot. For this year's We Give Catholic project, we would like to encourage donations to the existing maintenance funds for future major projects. Check our parish website, http://www.stclementlakewood.com, for the link that will take you directly to our #WeGIVECatholic page. Or you can donate with a regular check by putting in envelope marked "we give catholic". You can include in the offertory basket any weekend before Sunday, November 29. We can enter your donation manually and still receive credit for the promotional prizes awarded by the Catholic Community Foundation for participation etc. The donation portals will be open on Saturday, November 21, so you can donate early.

Why Are We Using Worship Aids?

You may have noticed that we have begun using printed worship aids instead of hymnals at Mass. This is part of an exciting effort to unify the music of our three parishes!

Until now, each parish has used a different hymnal. By moving to the same hymnal at St. Luke, St. Clement, and St. James, we will be able to develop a shared repertoire of familiar hymns and Mass settings, making it easier for our communities to worship together at solemnities and other joint celebrations.

Additionally, the hymnals currently used at St. Clement and St. James require annual subscriptions. Purchasing permanent hymnals for all three parishes will eliminate these recurring costs and save money over time.

All three parishes will receive new hymnals later this year. In the meantime, we will continue using printed worship aids. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we work toward a more unified and sustainable music ministry for our parish family!

St. Luke Memorial Table Reminder

Please pick up your memorial photos by November 31 from the table at the back of church. Remaining photos will be taken to the rectory for pick up.

Thank you,

The Bereavement Ministry

Northeast Ohio's Online Day of Catholic Giving

Giving Tuesday: Renewing McBride Hall

A Place to Gather, A Place to Serve, A Place for Everyone

For generations, McBride Hall has been an important part of life at St. Luke. From parish dinners and celebrations to ministry gatherings, community meals and outreach, it has been a place where friendships are formed, neighbors are welcomed, and our parish family comes together in fellowship and service.

This Giving Tuesday, we are inviting our parish community to help us renew McBride Hall so that it can continue to serve our parish and our neighbors for years to come.

- New commercial ovens, dishwashers, and countertops for the kitchen
- Updated lighting for a brighter, more welcoming space
- A renovated women's restroom with improved facilities and a baby-changing station
- New tables to better accommodate parish gatherings

We invite you to prayerfully consider supporting this important project on Giving Tuesday. Through your generosity, we can help ensure that McBride Hall remains a welcoming and vibrant center of parish life for generations to come.

Thank you for helping us build a stronger, more welcoming St. Luke community!

Adoration Chapel for Lakewood Catholic Parishes

Did you know that St. Clement has one of the few daily adoration chapels located in the Diocese of Cleveland? This sacred space and gem of our Lakewood parishes opened its doors in July of 1982 and has been a beacon of His Holy love and our devotion throughout the years. From our archives, a parishioner writes:

Holy Hour is no sacrifice! I wonder how many people realize that our strongest asset resides next to the rectory at St. Clement parish. The chapel is open to visitors every day of the week. My first thought was, "I will try this out once; I'll sacrifice some of my valuable time." After all, it may look good on my resume to get into Heaven. I soon realized this is no sacrifice at all!

One of the amazing things about my Holy Hour is the realization of how desperately God wants me to be there. Isn't that ironic? It is I who desperately needs Him and He....well...is God; how can the creator of all things have even the slightest interest in a person as non-important as me? But, then again, I have learned that God's ways are not always what I think is obvious. One of mankind's most dangerous pitfalls is pride: pride in thinking that we know how things should be, what is best, etc. The presence of God in the chapel is so tangible. After a while, you feel His presence in that room so strongly that it would be quite intimidating if not for His unbelievable compassion and love. I do not mean to sound so charismatic, but I cannot talk about my Holy Hour experience without mentioning the tangible feeling of His presence and the peace it provides me.

On the surface, it may seem like we get very little out of a one-hour visit, but God tenaciously works to make us better people, to heal what hurts in us, and to spread His love to others. Perhaps just a little at a time, I find my hatreds lessened, and my tolerance increased. Pope Leo states that Eucharistic Adoration is a "powerful antidote to the divisions of the world." I have found that to be true in my own life. In today's world, security is an illusion. Jobs are lost. Marriages dissolve. Loved ones die. The only sure thing is God's love for us, whether we deserve it or not. If you have any doubts, visit the chapel at the corner of Lincoln and Madison; you'll see what I mean. For more information on how to access the chapel, please contact the rectory at 216-521-0184.
