

Twenty-Eighth Sunday of the Year

October 11, 2015

Jesus, looking at the rich young man, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking one thing. Go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." Mark 10: 17-20

We know how the rich young man feels in today's Gospel. Yes, Jesus asks everything of us at the cost of being His disciple - but Jesus asks only what we have, not what we don't have. Each one of us possesses talents and resources, skills and assets that we have been given by God for the work of making the kingdom of God a reality in the here and now. We are often unable to choose the things of God over the things we own - things that have come to us only as a result of God's providence. Authentic discipleship demands more than token contributions and the rote following of rituals and traditions. Our baptism into the life of Christ compels us to focus every dimension of our lives on the things of God. To be the disciple of Christ we seek to become means reordering our priorities, a restructuring of our days to make time for the things of God. May we return to God the gifts He has given us in order to embrace eternity in the time to come.
