

Seventeenth Sunday of the Year

July 29, 2018

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" John 6: 1-15

The scene on that grassy plain mirrors the gathering at this table today. In the miracle of the loaves and fish, Jesus transforms a crowd of all ages, talents, abilities and backgrounds into a community of generosity. That vision of being a Eucharistic community is recreated each time we gather here. That is the challenge of the Gospel and the mandate of the Eucharist that is foreshadowed in this miracle story - to take up the hard work of reconciliation and compassion begun by God, the God who dwells here in our own village; to humbly and lovingly bring the peace of God's dwelling place into our own homes; to become the body and blood of Jesus that we receive at His table where all, saints and sinners, are welcomed. Eucharist is possible only when self defers to community, only when serving others is exalted over being served, only when differences dissolve and the common and shared are honored above all else. In the Eucharist of Christ, the humble Servant-Redeemer, we seek to become what we receive - one bread, one cup, one body and one family.

The Development of the Unborn Child

Week #19: If you were to shine a very bright light on my mother's abdomen, I may slowly move my hand in front of my eyes. If you make a very loud noise, I may cover my ears with my hands. I can also hear my mom's voice, and when she sings a lullaby, it soothes me and helps me sleep.
