SAINT AUGUSTINE

The Eucharist is Our Living Memorial

Reflection by Pope John Paul II (2002)

Today is a solemn feast, a feast on which we relive the first Sacred Supper. With a public and solemn act, we glorify and adore the Bread and the Wine become the true Body and true Blood of the Redeemer. "Signs not things are all we see," the Sequence stresses, but "here beneath these signs lie hidden priceless things."

Today we are celebrating a solemn feast that expresses the awesome wonder of the People of God: a wonder filled with gratitude for the gift of the Eucharist. In the Sacrament of the Altar, Jesus wanted to perpetuate his living presence in our midst in the same form in which he gave himself to the Apostles in the Upper Room. He left to us what he did at the Last Supper and we faithfully renew his action.

Days, years and centuries go by, but this most holy act in which Jesus condensed his entire Gospel of love does not pass away. He never ceases to offer himself, the Lamb immolated and risen, for the salvation of the world. With this memorial the Church responds to the command of God's Word, which we heard in the First Reading: "Remember ... Do not forget" (Dt 8,2.14).

The Eucharist is our living Memorial. In the Eucharist, as the Council recalls, "is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself our Pasch and the living bread which gives life to men through his flesh - that flesh which is given life and gives life through the Holy Spirit. Thus men are invited and led to offer themselves, their works and all creation with Christ ..." (Presbyterorum ordinis, n. 5).

From the Eucharist, "the source and the summit of all preaching of the Gospel" (ibid.), even our Church of Rome must daily draw the strength and enthusiasm for her missionary action and for every form of Christian witness in the world.

Homily of John Paul II, 20 May 2002, http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/angelus/2017/documents/papa-francesco_angelus_20170611.htm

Sequence | Lauda Sion

*Laud, O Zion, your salvation,
Laud with hymns of exultation,
Christ, your king and shepherd true:*

*Bring him all the praise you know,
He is more than you bestow.
Never can you reach his due.*

*Special theme for glad thanksgiving
Is the quick'ning and the living
Bread today before you set:*

*From his hands of old partaken,
As we know, by faith unshaken,
Where the Twelve at supper met.*

*Full and clear ring out your chanting,
Joy nor sweetest grace be wanting,
From your heart let praises burst:*

*For today the feast is holden,
When the institution olden
Of that supper was rehearsed.*

*Here the new law's new oblation,
By the new king's revelation,
Ends the form of ancient rite:*

*Now the new the old effaces,
Truth away the shadow chases,
Light dispels the gloom of night.*

*What he did at supper seated,
Christ ordained to be repeated,
His memorial ne'er to cease:*

*And his rule for guidance taking,
Bread and wine we hallow, making
Thus our sacrifice of peace.*

*This the truth each Christian learns,
Bread into his flesh he turns,
To his precious blood the wine:*

*Sight has fail'd, nor thought conceives,
But a dauntless faith believes,
Resting on a pow'r divine.*

*Here beneath these signs are hidden
Priceless things to sense forbidden;
Signs, not things are all we see:*

*Blood is poured and flesh is broken,
Yet in either wondrous token
Christ entire we know to be.*

*Whoso of this food partakes,
Does not rend the Lord nor breaks;
Christ is whole to all that taste:*

*Thousands are, as one, receivers,
One, as thousands of believers,
Eats of him who cannot waste.*

*Bad and good the feast are sharing,
Of what divers dooms preparing,
Endless death, or endless life.*

*Life to these, to those damnation,
See how like participation
Is with unlike issues rife.*

*When the sacrament is broken,
Doubt not, but believe 'tis spoken,
That each sever'd outward token doth the very whole contain.*

*Nought the precious gift divides,
Breaking but the sign betides
Jesus still the same abides,
still unbroken does remain.*

*Lo! the angel's food is given
To the pilgrim who has striven;
see the children's bread from heaven,
which on dogs may not be spent.*

*Truth the ancient types fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a victim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblood spilling,
manna to the fathers sent.*

*Very bread, good shepherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your love befriend us,
You refresh us, you defend us,
Your eternal goodness send us
In the land of life to see.*

*You who all things can and know,
Who on earth such food bestow,
Grant us with your saints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly feast you show,
Fellow heirs and guests to be.
Amen. Alleluia.*

Devotion to the Sacred Heart: Why the Heart?

The human heart has long been a symbol of love. At one time, it was viewed as the source of all human activity—intellectual and emotional. It has also metaphorically symbolized the center of things, such as the heart of a relationship or the heart of a city. It could also represent the character of a person, such as describing someone as having a good heart. The examples could go on. Speaking then of Jesus' heart carries many varied meanings—all pointing to his very human condition through which his divine love flows. Pope Pius XII, in his 1956 encyclical on devotion to the Sacred Heart, Haurietis Aquas, spoke of the love of God being expressed by Jesus through a frail and fragile body since “in Him dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily.” The pope also spoke of the body of Jesus possessing the complete range of human feelings and powers, and a heart that beat until his death on the cross; a heart that was then at one with his glorified body risen from the tomb which is still full of love for us. Devotion to the Sacred Heart is devotion to Jesus and his love. It is a sign or a symbol of both the divine and human love that Jesus has for his Father and for us. It also symbolizes the interior life of Jesus which led to his willingness to lay down his life for us. It is a symbol based on our belief in the Incarnation—a firm belief that the second person of the Blessed Trinity became human with all the feelings, emotions, and desires we usually associate with the human heart. It is that human heart—directly united to the divine person—which expresses God's love in a human way perfectly and purely since Jesus is free from sin. The heart is an apt symbol, but there is something more than a symbol at work here. There is the very real love of Jesus for the world, a love that wells up from both the divine as well as the human natures of Jesus. Devotion to the Sacred Heart is grounded not just in symbol, but in real love.

Excerpted from Miller, Fr. Don. Sacred Heart: A Symbol of Love and Mercy. Franciscan Media Blog, Franciscan Friars, 23 June 2017, <https://blog.franciscanmedia.org/franciscan-spirit/sacred-heart-a-symbol-of-love-and-mercy>.

During this Coronavirus pandemic, many are tempted to fear, anxiety and perhaps even despair. Some have lost their precious lives, some have lost those whom they love, some have suffered through the debilitating effects of this illness, some have lost their jobs, their income, and most have encountered much disruption to the normal flow of their daily lives.

Every crisis in life is also an opportunity to turn to our beloved Savior in trust and complete abandonment so as to rest in His merciful hands. To rest in the hands of God means we are secure, despite the uncertainty of life. It means we are free to love God and others, despite the challenges we face. It means we raise our eyes to Heaven, rather than look down in fear.

Pot of Gold Fundraiser

Our Pot-of-Gold Fundraiser that would begin for the calendar year July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, has been postponed until the fall. More information will be forthcoming in future bulletins and on the website.

We have continued to pull daily ticket winners for the current year, and will continue through June 30, 2020.

A big thank you for those of you who have supported our Pot-of-Gold fundraiser to benefit our Parish. Your support has been greatly appreciated!

CYO Fall Sports

Registration for fall sports is now open. The decision on whether fall sports will be played and what each sport will look like is beyond LCA's control, but we need to begin planning for that season as if it will take place in its full capacity. Note that payment for fall sports is not required at this time. For each sport offered, there are two payment options. Families are permitted to pay now, but we encourage families to choose the second option, which delays payment until July. The pay-now-option is a default in the registration system we use, and cannot be removed as an option. For our spring student-athletes, we are still in the process of finalizing credits and refunds, a process that has been slow due to the large number of families involved. Click here to register for:

- Girls' Volleyball (grades 3-8)
- Cross-Country (boys & girls grades 3-8)
- Intramural Cross-Country (boys & girls grades 1 & 2)
- Flag Football (boys & girls grades 1-4)

Please note that girls volleyball will now be offered at the 3rd grade level, and flag football has been extended to 4th grade.

LCA will again combine with St. Christopher and St. Angela for 5th-8th grade tackle football. Click here to register.

Please note that need-based assistance is available. The Lakewood Catholic Academy Athletic Board believes that registration cost should not be a barrier to participation. Please contact Mr. Mike Fletcher to inquire about assistance.
