Adoration Chapel

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 28, 2020

"Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward".

Matthew 10: 37-42

WE DO NOT ALWAYS see the people around us, especially if they are well known to us. We have set in cement our ideas about these familiar faces and we tend to filter out any information that contradicts it. The patterns are set. And thus we do not give others a chance to change or to surprise us.

The people in Jesus' town knew Him, or at least they thought they did. Jesus was believed to be the son of the carpenter. Mary was His mother; they knew His relatives. Their ideas about Him were fixed. Not surprisingly, they were among the ones who had the most difficulty believing in Him.

Could we try, this day, to see those familiar faces around us with a mind free of old labels? Could we let go of the mental constraints we place on others? If we are able to do so, maybe those closest to us will surprise us. They may even amaze us. Perhaps Jesus is still among us, present in others, but we fail to recognize Him.

"Before every human being comes a retinue of angels announcing: Make way for an image of the Holy One. Blessed be God."

The time for healing of the wounds has come. The time to build is upon us...

We pledge ourselves to liberate all our people from the continuing bondage of poverty, deprivation, suffering, gender and other discrimination... There is no easy road to freedom... None of us acting alone can achieve success. We must therefore act together as a united people, for reconciliation, for nation building, for the birth of a new world.

The FEST – a day of hope and family when we need it most!

Sign up to help out!

FEST 2020 is a little more than a month away, and we need volunteer help to assemble craft kits, put together giveaways, host watch parties and more! To get involved and learn more – visit www.theFEST.us/volunteer. It will still take hundreds of volunteers to make The FEST possible this year. Volunteers will get a free t-shirt and make this wonderful day of faith, family and fun possible.

So, what are we to do with our grief, our fears and anxiety during this time?

- 1. Spread kindness, not germs. Doing acts of kindness is often helpful. This might be a phone call or thoughtful and compassionate words to someone who is isolated. It can be getting groceries or leaving a meal on the doorstep. Be creative.
- 2. Stay connected. Social distancing does not mean social disengagement. Reach out via phone calls or digitally. Explore those online support groups and websites.
- 3. Practice self-care. Focus on your breathing. Move your body. Practice mindfulness. These exercises will go a long way in keeping you healthy in body, mind and spirit.
- 4. Recognize moments of joy. Take a walk outside. Let nature do its magic. Watch a silly video. Facetime with an old friend. Laugh. Smile. Be safe and be well.
