Poor Clares' Prayer Line

Do you need prayer today? Are your loved ones, coworkers or neighbors in need of God's loving guidance? Call the Poor Clares' Prayer Line at 216-361-0783.

"TAKE THIS BREAD..."

The very baking of bread mirrors the mystery of Christ as the compassion of God made human for us: the elements of bread come together and "die" to become bread as Christ dies to rise bringing all of humankind to the fullness of life in God. Bread is a living sign of what it means to be church: we come together with our gifts and talents, and, by the "yeast" that is the Spirit of God, we become the one bread, the Church, the body of Christ. In imitating Jesus' three actions in today's Gospel — "blessing" and giving thanks for what God has given to us, "breaking" from our blessings (including our time and energy) in order to contribute to the good of all, and "giving" in joy and humility — we transform our small offerings of fish and pieces of bread into the means for becoming the one body of Christ.

Special Prayer Book

This virus has impacted all of us in some way, either physically, mentally, financially, or even the unforeseen passing of a loved one. Here at St. Clement we will be adding a special prayer book for all of our parishioners to add names of those who have been affected by this virus. We need, as a community, to pray for everyone to bring strength and hope into our lives at this time. Please feel free to call or email the parish office with any names you would like to be entered into this special book - we only need the first and last name or last initial. A special intention will be added to each Saturday and Sunday Mass to remind us to pray for everyone in this special book of names.

Opening the church for public Masses has been a work in progress. We have cleaning stations available around the church. These include Lysol-based cleaning spray bottles and disposable towels, which you may use to sanitize your pew to your comfort level. There are waste baskets at each cleaning station for you to dispose of the towels. We want all of our parishioners to feel safe and comfortable while in church.
