Opening the church for public Masses has been a work in progress. We have cleaning stations available around the church. These include Lysol based cleaning spray bottles and disposable towels which you may use to sanitize your pew to your comfort level. There are waste baskets at each cleaning station for you to dispose of the towels. We want all of our parishioners to feel safe and comfortable while in church.

Every one of us wants to mean something, every one of us wants our presence to mean something, every one of us wants to know that we matter. The Canaanite woman in today's Gospel seeks what we all seek: to be acknowledged as good, to be respected as a child of God, to be welcomed as a sister and brother to all. In honoring the goodness and love of the Canaanite mother (who, as a Canaanite, is despised by Jesus' hearers), Jesus opens up our perspective and illuminates our vision, enabling us to see one another as God sees us. The call to discipleship demands that we look beyond labels and stereotypes to realize that every one of us is a child of God, brothers and sisters all.

A Prayer Amid an Epidemic

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness," be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

(Kerry Weber/America)

Pray for the Deceased

Gerald Smith

May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
