Adoration Chapel

The grace of God can enable even the “tax collector” and “prostitute” to be instruments of God’s compassion and reconciliation in our midst. Throughout the Gospels, Jesus upholds the sacred dignity of all men and women in the eyes of God - the poor, the powerless, the ignored, the forgotten. We are called to uphold that dignity, as well, not letting the contributions and meaning of an individual’s life be dismissed by vague labels and inaccurate stereotypes based on age or appearance, profession or class. Christ calls us to look beyond hasty impressions and incomplete perceptions in order to seek out the holiness and goodness that reside in every person who is, like each one of us, a child of God.
