Thirty-Third Sunday of the Year

November 15, 2020

The parable of the talents: "You wicked lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter...?" "For to everyone who has more will be given, and they will grow rich, but from the one who has not, even what they have will be taken away." Matthew 25: 14-30

The parable of the talents focuses on the critical question of not what we possess in terms of talent and ability, but our willingness to use those skills to make the kingdom of God a reality here and now. The Spirit of God prompts us to use those "talents" for the common good, to bring healing to the broken, to establish the Kingdom of God in our time and place. Such an investment is demanding work. Whatever we can do, whatever our skills and resources enable us to do, the challenge of the Gospel is to be ready and willing to respond to the opportunities we have to give joyfully for the sake of His Kingdom.

Pray for the Deceased

Jennie Alto

May her soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Pro Orantibus Day

On Saturday, November 21st, the Church will celebrate Pro Orantibus Day ("For Those Who Pray"), honoring cloistered men and women. It is a day of thanksgiving, solidarity, and support for contemplative religious who spend their lives in total dedication to God in union with Jesus and interceding for the salvation of all.

Pope Pius the XII instituted this worldwide event in 1953, and Pope St. John Paul II expanded its celebration in 1997, to take place on the Memorial of Our Lady's Presentation in the Temple. The faithful around the world are encouraged to develop their own way of commemorating the day and honoring cloistered women and men religious, at Mass and in other special ways such as by offering up their prayers, by making visits to monasteries and cloistered convents, by sending cards or letters to contemplative religious, and by coordinating school or catechetical activities. For more information visit www.cloisteredlife.com.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity to our Parish!

On Tuesday, December 1, 2020, St. Clement Church asks for your support as we participate in #wegivecatholic, Northeast Ohio's Online Day of Catholic Giving.

While we traditionally rely on the Pot of Gold and Thanksgiving Raffle to raise funds for repairs to the church, these important fundraisers have been postponed for the foreseeable future due to the pandemic. Your donation on Giving Tuesday is more important than ever. Our goal is to raise $15,000 to purchase new light inserts for the historic fixtures in the church and a new electrical box in the sacristy.

On Tuesday, December 1st, please support us with your donation by going to www.wegivecatholic.org, search for St. Clement Parish, then click "Donate Now." You may also check our parish website, <http://www.stclementlakewood.com>, for the link that will take you directly to our #WGC Giving page. Please do this on Giving Tuesday as prize money is available to churches with the highest donations on this day. If you would rather mail your donation directly to the church, checks should be made payable to St. Clement Church and delivered to the church by December 1st. Please indicate that you would like your donation to go toward #wegivecatholic.

POOR CLARES' PRAYER LINE

Do you need prayer today? Are your loved ones, coworkers or neighbors in need of God's loving guidance? Call the Poor Clares' Prayer Line at 216-361-0783.

"In atonement for our sins and for those of the whole world."

Need a break from the news shows, from your home office, from worrying? Everyday at 3 pm on EWTN you can join with others and pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. It only takes 19 minutes, but it is so worthwhile. Our community, our country and our world, need the Lord's mercy now more than ever. It's a calm retreat from these troubling days. It's a gift to the world. God's mercy is our hope.
