In today's Gospel, John the Baptizer makes his Advent appearance. The same Word that came to John in the desert comes to each of us in the deserts of our own hearts, enabling us to transform the wastelands and straighten the winding roads of our lives in the compassion and justice of God. In this holy season of Advent, may we behold, with humble and grateful joy, the Word of God becoming alive and real for us in the person of Jesus. Let us welcome God's Word into our own consciousness, calling us, as it called John, to proclaim God's presence in our midst.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

As we continue our Advent journey, we realize that there are many voices in our world. Voices that can challenge us, lift us up or frustrate us. In the Gospel, we hear the unexpected voice of one calling out in the desert. This voice announces the goodness that God has for His people. Let us use the spirit of discernment to listen attentively to God's voice in our life and be open to the unexpected voice that could reveal to us God's goodness.
