ADORATION CHAPEL

December 20 Fourth Sunday in Advent 2020

"Behold you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus." Luke 1: 31

In today's Gospel, God calls Mary of Nazareth to meet her "hour"; her accepting God's call to be the mother of the Christ was the beginning of humanity's re-creation in the love and life of God. May we possess the same trust and faith in the providence of God to meet our "hour" - whenever and wherever that time may come - when we are called to bring the transforming hope of the Gospel Jesus into our own time and place.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Entering these final days of Advent, we are reminded that goodness and openness to God's plan calls us to rejoice and leap for joy. In a crazy and at times confused world, we know that God's merciful love is abundant. Let us not lose sight of the simple acts of goodness that we can see every day if only we open our eyes. Rejoicing in them will make our world seem less chaotic. "Leaping for joy" calls us into action. May we not forget doing our acts of goodness for others.
