Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 17, 2021

As he watched Jesus walk by, John said, "Behold the Lamb of God." Jesus turned and saw them following Him. "What are you looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbi,... where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." John 1: 35-42

In today's Gospel, John the Baptizer leaves the Gospel stage, exhorting His followers and us to "behold the Lamb of God." The word "behold" connotes more than just "to look", it implies wonder, attentiveness and awe. John calls us not just "to see" Jesus in our midst, but to "behold" His presence, to put aside our fears and stop our constant busyness in order to open our lives to being transformed and recreated in the light of Christ. In this new liturgical year, let us "behold" the Lamb of God among us - to open our hearts and consciences to see and hear Christ working, healing, preaching in our midst, to embrace and be embraced by the love of God that moves and animates this story of His beloved Son's living among us.
