In the passion and death of His beloved, God is rejected and humiliated, God suffers and dies - just as every human being experiences. But God allows Himself to be broken in order that we might understand the fragile, impermanent nature of this life. As we will see as the Gospel unfolds this Holy Week, the brokenness we both suffer and inflict can be healed in the love of God - love that is humble, love that is sincere, love that is centered in gratitude and selflessness.

In the broken body of Jesus, we are reconciled with God; in the broken body of Jesus, our lives are transformed in the perfect love of Christ; in the broken body of Jesus, God's Spirit of humility and compassion becomes a force of hope and re-creation in our hurting and despairing world.
