SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (DIVINE MERCY)

APRIL 11, 2021

But Thomas said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in His hands and put my finger in the nail marks and put my hand into His side, I will not believe." John 20: 19-31

In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to His disciples and shows them His hands and His side; later He invites the doubting Thomas to touch the marks made by the nails and the gash from the soldier's lance. Easter does not deny the effects of Good Friday nor erases the wounds of crucifixion - but Easter is God's compassion moving us beyond crucifixion to healing and wholeness. We all have scars from our own Good Fridays that remain long after our own experiences of resurrection. We learn from our scars. Our "nail marks" remind us that all pain and grief, all ridicule and suffering are transformed into healing and peace in the love of God we experience from others and that we extend to them. Jesus tells Thomas and his brothers not to be afraid of nail marks and scars and fractured bones and the crushed spirit and the broken heart. Compassion, forgiveness, justice - no matter how clumsily offered - can heal and mend. In light of the unwavering hope, with the assurance of God's unlimited grace, even the simplest act of kindness and understanding is the realization of Easter in our midst.

Pray for the Deceased

Andrew C. Mino

May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Topic: Understanding Religious Orders

Benedictine, Carmelites, Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans... and this barely skims the surface of the religious orders. We've heard the names, but if someone asked you to explain who they are or what the difference is, could you answer? Well, we've asked Bishop Gries to help us unravel what the religious orders are and why there are so many different orders. Join us for this enlightening evening with Bishop Gries. We can't wait to see you there!
