Thought For the Day...

The world promises you comfort, but you were not made for comfort. You were made for greatness.
~Pope Benedict XVI

This pandemic has instilled in many of us a new appreciation of today's Gospel: our "connectedness" to one another in the compassion and peace of God's Christ. As branches of Christ the vine, we're part of something greater than ourselves, something which transforms and transcends the fragility of our lives. In our simplest acts of kindness and most ordinary offerings of help and support, may we realize with a new spirit of gratitude that we are part of one another, that each one of us matters to all of us, that in our love and respect for one another we realize the very presence of God in our midst.

Welcome Neophytes

Neophyte comes from a Greek term meaning “newly planted.” Paul uses this term in his letter to Timothy to mean “new convert.” At the Easter Vigil on April 3, 2021, we welcomed four new members into the Church – Ana Dimas, Margaret Dowling, Madeline McDonnell, and Darryl Mosley. Like so many challenges during the past year, because of COVID they met the challenge of weekly meetings both in person and via Zoom and telephone calls to prepare for full reception into the Church. Welcome to all of you. I want to thank Ron and Colleen Czerski for their work throughout this year in guiding these new members of the Church in learning about Scripture, Church History, the Sacraments, an overview of the Catholic Catechism and so many other things.

Whenever possible, they would meet as a group and they would also provide individual lessons to bring each of them to a place of readiness to receive the Sacraments at Easter. Despite the impediments created by COVID, the lessons were well planned and delivered in an organized and easy-to-follow model. Their teaching method will help in our RCIA process going forward. Thanks to you both. To our community, thank you for all your prayers for our new members. If you know anyone who might be interested in becoming Catholic, just have them contact me at dlbryan@gmail.com.

Blessings, Deacon Danny

Congratulations, First Communicants!

Got Change for Birthright Baby Bottles?

Due to the pandemic, we did not have our annual baby bottle campaign last year. This did not mean that there weren't always young pregnant mothers who needed help. Therefore, once again, we are asking you to take a baby bottle and fill it with change to help make a change in a young mother's life. This will happen between Mother's Day and Father's Day. All proceeds go directly to Birthright. We thank you in advance for your support.
