Adoration Chapel

Eighteenth Sunday of the Year

August 1, 2021

"Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you."

John 6: 24-35

In calling Himself the "living bread", Jesus offers Himself to us both as the life of God that animates us with compassion and righteousness and the love of God that binds us to the Father and to one another as brothers and sisters. As Jesus gave "life" to the world through His selfless compassion and humble servanthood to others, we, too, can give "life to the world" when we embrace the same giving spirit of Jesus - looking beyond our own needs and security to the good of others, giving not from our treasure but from our poverty, nourishing one another in love, compassion and selflessness of the Gospel.

Welcome Jillian Foster

maryknoll lay missioners

Jillian Foster, from the Maryknoll Lay Missioners, will speak at all Masses next weekend August 7th & 8th. Jillian is originally from Loveland, Ohio, and attended the University of Dayton. She graduated in 2018 with a degree in human rights studies and three minors in religious studies, computer science and sustainability. It was in college that she started to become more active in social justice, forming a Catholic Relief Services Student Ambassadors Group to encourage others as well during her final two years. After graduation, Jill served a year with FrancisCorps in Syracuse, N.Y., working as an assistant in a L'Arche community. In 2019, Jill applied to the Maryknoll Lay Missioners and was placed in Haiti. Jill's transition to life in Haiti has come at a time when the world is transitioning to a different reality. Two weeks out of language school and in her new home in Gros Morne, the Covid-19 pandemic changed everything.

Your donations will allow the Missioners to prepare and sustain laypeople to help build a more just, compassionate and sustainable world parishes and mission stations in the diocese. The second collection will be taken up on behalf of her missionary work. We thank you for your kind welcome and generous support.
