Adoration Chapel

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 20, 2022

"For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven."

Luke 6: 27-38

On His teachings on loving one's enemies, Jesus challenges us to break the cycle of fear, hatred and vengeance that ensnares us and society by realizing how self-centered interests diminish the dreams and hopes of others. Only in seeing the griefs and disappointments of those we love, and of those we find difficult to love, can we begin to move beyond feelings of bitterness and demands for retribution. Such a greater understanding of the impact of our own actions and seeking the greater good of the community are the heart of Jesus' Gospel. The faithful disciple seeks to break that destructive rut of hatred and distrust by taking that formidable first step to love, to trust, to heal, to be reconciled with those from whom we are separated.
