SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 24, 2022

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

John 20: 19-31

In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to His disciples and shows them His hands and His side; later He invites the doubting Thomas to touch the marks made by the nails and the gash from the soldier's lance. Easter does not deny the effects of Good Friday nor erases the wounds of crucifixion - but Easter is God's compassion moving us beyond crucifixion to healing and wholeness. We all have scars from our own Good Fridays that remain long after our own experiences of resurrection. We learn from our scars. Our "nail marks" remind us that all pain and grief, all ridicule and suffering are transformed into healing and peace in the love of God we experience from others and that we extend to them. Jesus tells Thomas and his brothers not to be afraid of nail marks and scars and fractured bones and the crushed spirit and the broken heart. Compassion, forgiveness, justice - no matter how offered - can heal and mend. In light of the unwavering hope, with the assurance of God's unlimited grace, even the simplest act of kindness and understanding is the realization of Easter in our midst.

Thank you for your generous support!!

Congratulations - Scholarship Recipients

The Saint Clement Scholarship Committee would like to congratulate the following students on receiving 2022 scholarship awards: Theodore Stasko, Cecelia Cudnik, Charlie Cudnik, John Davidson, Maria Davidson, William Davidson, Joseph Cudnik, Isaac Cudnik, Georgia Wagner and Michael Butterfield. The students were each awarded a scholarship to pursue their education at a Catholic grade school, high school or university. Each student answered essay questions about their faith and service to their community. They also participated in a personal interview with committee members. The Saint Clement community is blessed to have such faith-filled young people who represent the bright future of our church. Congratulations to each of them, and best wishes to Isaac Cudnik as he heads off to college in the fall.
