THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 1, 2022

So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and said to Jesus, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." John 21: 1-19

In today's Gospel, the Risen Jesus makes His presence known to Peter and his fishing companions by calling them to cast their nets off the "right" side of the boat. Despite their doubts and frustrations, they do as Jesus instructs and end up with an incredible catch - and, as the writer of the Fourth Gospel notes, their nets did not tear. When we act out of love, when we put aside our own fears and expectations of others, when we seek to imitate the selfless compassion of the Risen One, we will discover, Jesus promises, how strong and indestructible our own "nets" are, that we are able to realize a "catch" of good things despite the hopelessness of the night, the fear of the unknown deep, the weight of the catch we struggle to haul to shore.
