ADORATION CHAPEL

PENTECOST SUNDAY

JUNE 5, 2022

Jesus breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." John 20: 19-23

In each of the accounts of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit enables the disciples to do things they could not do on their own. In Acts, the Spirit empowers Peter and his brothers to speak boldly of the Risen Christ; in John's Gospel, Jesus "breathes" His Spirit upon the remnant in the Upper Room to help them understand and embrace the "truth" of His love - truth they could never bear or understand on their own. That is Pentecost - that is the Spirit of God filling us, the Church of the Risen Christ, with the grace to do the work of compassion and forgiveness we can't imagine ourselves doing, the understanding to take on the work of His justice and peace despite our own fears and doubts. May this Pentecost empower us with the grace of God to take on what we know is right and good and just - despite our own sense of inadequacy and failure; may we live in the conviction that the Spirit will enable us to do what is of and by God if we are willing to love enough to try.
