The Body and Blood of Christ

June 19, 2022

Jesus feeds the crowd with the five loaves of bread and two fish. Luke 9: 11-17

The feeding of the five thousand is the only miracle of Jesus recorded in all four Gospels. The early Christian community clearly loved this story, seeing it as a precursor to the Eucharist. In every version of the story, Jesus responds to the Twelve's concern for the crowds by challenging them to come up with whatever they can, if only a few pieces of fish and some scraps of bread. From what they give, Jesus works the wonder. In doing so, Jesus forever connects compassion and generosity with the sacrament of His body and blood, just as He inextricably links the service of foot washing with the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Jesus' gift of the Eucharist – the bread and wine blessed and broken for our sake – comes with an important string attached - it must be shared.

In our taking the body of Christ, we become the body of Christ. In receiving the Eucharist, we must be willing to become Eucharist for others, to make the limitless, complete love of Christ real for all.
