Adoration Chapel

June 26 Thirteenth Sunday of the Year 2022

*And to another Jesus said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father."
"Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God." Luke 9: 51-62*

Jesus is challenging us to recognize that discipleship requires us to make clear choices and set focused priorities if we are to realize in our own lives God's vision of compassion, peace and justice. Consciously or unconsciously, we let so many agendas, interests and expectations monopolize our time and attention and energy to the point where we lose sight of what is authentically important and affirming and meaningful in our lives. In calling us to be His disciples, Jesus requires us to let go of our own needs and wants, our fears and doubts, in order to free ourselves to do truly great things for the love of God. In preferring compassion over profit, in operating out of a sense of gratitude rather than regret, in seeking reconciliation before requital, we are able to know the unique joy that can only be experienced by bringing the reign of God to reality in our own time and place.
