Adoration Chapel

July 10 Fifteenth Sunday of the Year 2022

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed to the opposite side. Likewise, a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" Luke 10: 25-37

Hearing Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan, we resolve to act the same way should we ever encounter someone lying in a ditch, beaten and bruised, and near dead. But every day, without realizing it, we encounter people who are in a ditch of discouragement, who have been beaten and bruised by the abuse and anger of others, who have been left near dead in frustrating hopelessness. We don't have to look very far to find such "victims" - and we can become Good Samaritans by extending to them compassion, understanding and a helping hand. May we embrace the perspective of Christ that enables us to see one another as our "neighbors" and to seek to "take care of them" as we travel together to Jericho.

"After suffering comes the Lord, comes joy, and after the darkness comes the sun."

~Pope Francis
