Adoration Chapel

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 24, 2022

"When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come...For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." Luke 11: 1-13

"Thy kingdom come" - Your kingdom come, O God, in our homes, in our offices, in our workplaces, in our classrooms, on our playgrounds, Your will be done in every moment and every place of our lives as it is in heaven. That is the prayer Jesus teaches us to pray, a prayer that does not so much ask God to do what we want but prayer that asks that we do what God wants of us - and being ready and willing to make God's will a reality in our everyday life. Prayer, worthy of God's ear, seeks the grace to do the work God calls us to do (forgiveness, charity, justice) and to become the people God calls us to become (brothers and sisters under our Father in heaven). May the prayer of St. Thomas More become the heart of our prayer life: "O God, give us the grace to work for the things we pray for."
