Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 31, 2022

The parable of the rich man's new barns: "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to who will they belong?" Luke 12: 13-21

In today's Gospel, Jesus makes clear that our lives are not about amassing fortunes achieving great celebrity; God has not given this precious time to fill our barns with more of the latest, the best, the biggest, things that will be gone in an instant. The fullness of life is the selfless and affirming love that is and of God which creates and embraces, affirms and consoles, enriches and lifts up. It is that unique, simple, but profound love that is centered in gratitude to its Author and seeks to be shared with those with whom we are privileged to journey through this life. Let us affirm our Love of God in the good we are able to do for family and friends. Jesus calls us to take "inventory" of our lives and the things that clutter them and refocus our attention on the things of God: compassion, mercy, forgiveness and consolation.
