Twentieth Sunday of the Year

August 14, 2022

"I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing...Do you think that I have come to establish peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." Luke 12: 49-53

Jesus' striking words in today's Gospel are painfully clear. Jesus comes to proclaim a demanding Gospel of compassion, forgiveness and justice that is often at odds with the values and conventions of our world. The Gospel is not easy, it is not comfortable; it is challenging and demanding and, in its call for personal conversion, it can be divisive and confrontational, putting us and those we love on opposing sides. Discipleship is not without cost; balancing the Gospel of unconditional, reconciling love and its ethical and moral imperatives with the day-to-day practical realities of our lives is very difficult. To live that Gospel faithfully is to become a contradiction to those around us, requiring us to embrace a higher ethical and moral standard in confronting life's challenges. Discipleship demands that we risk power, prestige and even acceptance to stand up for the equality, justice, compassion and reconciliation that every individual possesses by virtue of being a son and daughter of God.

The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is Monday, August 15th.

Clue #13:

In what year was the St. Vincent de Paul Conference established at St. Clement?

Please submit responses to:

Answer for Clue #12:

In 1972, the large mosaic of the Risen Christ on the wall behind the altar replaced the statue of St. Clement.
