Twenty-Second Sunday of the Year

August 28, 2022

"When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." Luke 14: 1, 7-14

Jesus asks us to see one another from the perspective of Gospel humility - humility that realizes that we are not the center of all things but part of a much larger world, humility that is centered in gratitude for all the blessings we have received as a result of the depth of God's love and not because of anything we have done to deserve any of them. God's banquet table includes places of honor for every hurting, confused soul. The spirit of humility as taught by Jesus is the realization that we share with every human being the dignity of being made in the image and likeness of God. Christ-like humility is the ability to see one another as God sees us and to rejoice in being ministers to one another in the joys and struggles we all experience. Jesus asks all who would be His disciples to embrace a spirit of faith-centered humility that enables us to see beyond appearances and labels in order to welcome one another as brothers and sisters, children of God, who is Father of every one of us.
