Twenty-Eighth Sunday of the Year

October 9, 2022

One of the lepers, realizing that he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked Him. He was a Samaritan. Luke 17: 11-19

For no other reason than love so deep we cannot begin to fathom it, God has breathed His life into us. The only fitting response we can make to such unexplainable and unmerited love is to stand humbly before God in quiet, humble gratitude. Such a spirit of thankfulness can transform cynicism and despair into optimism and hope and make whatever good we do an experience of grace. But too often we let our worries and fears over what we might lose and our disappointment and hurt over what we don't have overwhelm that spirit of gratitude. Like the Samaritan leper who gives thanks for the miracle that has taken place, we, too, can be transformed by such joyful gratitude to God once we realize that, in Christ, we have been "made whole," "made clean," "restored" to completeness in His hope and love.

Respect Life Month

October is Respect Life Month. Since Roe vs. Wade has been overturned, we have the opportunity, as never before, to make the United States safe for unborn children. We must let the world know that all abortions are wrong. Wear a pro-life button, put a bumper sticker on your car, write letters to your senators and congressmen but, above all, pray. There is information in the gathering area.
