Adoration Chapel

Twenty-Ninth Sunday of the Year

October 16, 2022

"There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.'" Luke 18: 1-8

The persistent widow of today's Gospel lives among us. She is the poor, the struggling, the ignored, the forgotten. She is the mother and the father, the daughter and the son, the family and friend of the suffering and dying who care for them and who work for a cure so that other families may be spared what they have suffered through. She is the victim of injustice whose sense of her own dignity enables her to fight on. Christ promises that the Father hears the worthy prayer of the Gospel widow in her many guises and that her perseverance in faith will one day be rewarded. Jesus confronts us with our own culpability for the widow's plight when we become, in our obliviousness and self-absorption, "judges who neither fear God nor respect any human being." May the Gospel Jesus be our hope in our own struggles and an inspiration to us to become the answer to the prayers of the "persistent widows" among us here.

Whether it lasts for a brief moment or for a hundred years, each of our lives is a good and perfect gift. At every stage, from conception to natural death, and in every circumstance (death penalty, assisted suicide, euthanasia, abortion, and/or embryonic stem cell research) we are held in existence by God's love. As God's creatures, we should do everything to build up the wonderful and mysterious work of our Creator God.
