ADORATION CHAPEL

Third Sunday of Lent

March 12, 2023

Jesus meets the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well. John 4: 5-42

Without anger or rancor, Jesus prods the woman he meets at Jacob's well to face the reality of her life: the missteps and stumbles she has taken, the messes she has made of her relationship, the sins that have estranged her from her own people. The water that Jesus speaks of is not success or well-being in our lives but for meaning and satisfaction in our relationships, in our work, in our spiritual life. The grace to start over again is ours if we are honest enough to confront our limitations and culpability and wise enough to realize God's constant presence and His never rescinded invitation to return to Him. In so many ordinary ways we can bring forth new life and hope in Christ if we focus on healing rather than rending, in teaching rather than punishing, in rebuilding rather than vanquishing.

Dispensation from Friday Abstinence on Saint Patrick's Day

Bishop Malesic has formally dispensed the faithful from the obligation to abstain from meat on the Memorial of St. Patrick, observed this year on Friday, March 17th. He asks "that those who exercise this dispensation and eat meat on the Feast of St. Patrick to select another non-Friday during Lent to abstain from eating meat or to make some offering on behalf of the poor, whether by prayer, fasting or almsgiving."

Thank you to everyone who participated in Catholic Charities In-Pew Appeal. Because of your support, over 425,000 individuals will receive help and hope through the programs and services made possible by people like you.
