ADORATION CHAPEL

Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 19, 2023

The healing of the man born blind: "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind." John 9: 1-41

As Jesus heals the blind man "so that the works of God might be made visible through Him," He opens our eyes to see and our hearts to make God's work of justice and reconciliation "visible" in our own time and place. In Baptism, we are entrusted with those "works." Our least remarkable offerings of charity and extensions of the Eucharist we offer together at the Lord's table; our unheralded, unseen efforts to bring healing and hope to others illuminate the unseen presence of God in our midst. This Lent, may we dare to embrace the light of God in His Christ, a vision of faith that illuminates the darkness of injustice and hatred with the light of justice and compassion. May God grant us the vision that the blind man receives in today's Gospel – to see the love of God present in all things.
