In the Gospels, Jesus reveals God is more than the great Master of all creation. God is the loving Father of all God's daughters and sons of every color and nationality, of every social and economic class, in every experience of grief and despair. Today's Feast of the Trinity calls us to rediscover the many ways in which the love of God is revealed in our lives. God is with us in our despair, in our grief, in our pain. May we become ministers and agents of that love, rising above our own hurts and suffering in order to re-create, with hope, purpose and healing, the world God has entrusted to us.
