"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." John 14: 27

The peace that the Risen Jesus leaves us is not passive acquiescence or the absence of hostility and conflict - the peace of Jesus is a mindset; a constant seeking out of God's love, justice and mercy; an understanding of our connectedness to God and to one another as children of the same God. To embrace Christ's gift of peace is to understand and celebrate that connectedness to one another as children of the same God in whose love and justice we center our attitudes and values. The peace of the Easter Christ is the awareness of God's presence in every moment of our lives, the confidence that our hope in the things of God will be realized, the assurance that the love of God is ours. Christ's peace is a perspective that informs all of our actions, behaviors and values - to live Christ's peace is to understand our responsibility to the common good and provide our share not from our surplus but from our need. The peace of the Risen One is to realize and honor God's hand in all things, protecting and unifying all the world.
