ADORATION CHAPEL

Fifth Sunday of Lent

March 26, 2023

Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" John 11: 1-45

As Jesus called Lazarus to life, may we hear that same call to life, to drop the bindings of sin and death that prevent us from loving and being loved.

In our own lives, there is much beauty and joy that are never realized, that are "wrapped" in layers of discouragement and resignation. In Baptism, we have been called to the work of resurrection - to remove whatever covers the goodness of so many good souls, to free the bound Lazaruses in our midst by our compassion and healing, to raise up those who have "died" in despair and desperation. Such is the resurrection we can bring to our world in the here and now as we await the fulfillment of the Easter promise to come.
