The Resurrection of the Lord

"Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me." Matthew 28: 1-10

Easter begins in the darkness of night, in the seeming finality of earth, in the hopelessness of ashes. But Easter moves beyond those states. Easter is more than dogmas and verities; look for Easter in the small candle that defies the darkness, in the small flower that pierces the cold April earth, in the hand that reaches out to you when all seems hopeless.

Easter is the eternal morning after the darkest, stormiest night. Easter is the stubborn hope of a God who re-creates us and our world until His dream of a humanity bound in His love is realized.

Easter is the Risen Christ in our midst, enabling us to re-create our broken lives in His compassion and peace.

Fr. Joseph Workman, Fr. Deogratias Ruwaainenyi and the Parish Staff of Saint Clement extend a Happy and Blessed Easter to our Saint Clement Parish Community.
