

Come, Holy Spirit

Pentecost Sunday | May 28, 2023

fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

MAY 28, 2023

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, I send you." And when He said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." John 20: 19-23

The picture of that first Pentecost is the picture of every Christian community since - including our own. And, as that first gathering of Jesus' friends experienced His Spirit in wind and fire, that same Spirit speaks to us. So what is the Spirit calling us, as a Church and as individuals, to do the Pentecost of the year 2023: to forgive? - to heal? - to lift up? - to welcome? The miracle of Pentecost is re-created every time the Church gathers. What happened to those terrified first disciples happens to us. What began with them continues with us. Once again, the Spirit speaks to us, as individuals and as a community, to bring His word to life.

May this Pentecost empower us with the grace of God to take on what we know is right and good and just, despite our own sense of inadequacy and failure. May we live in the conviction that the Spirit will enable us to do what is of and by God if we are willing to love enough to try.

Congratulations!!

Congratulations to the Scholarship Recipients!!

The St. Clement Scholarship Committee would like to congratulate the following students on receiving 2023 scholarship awards: Leo Davidson; John Davidson; Cecelia Cudnik; Maria Davidson; William Davidson; Charlie Cudnik; Elena McAlister; Isaac Cudnik; Joseph Cudnik and Michael Butterfield. The students were each awarded a scholarship to pursue their education at a Catholic grade school, high school or university. Each student answered an essay question about St. Clement and his legacy. The St. Clement community is blessed to have such faith-filled young people who represent the bright future of our church. Congratulations to each of them!

Baby Bottles for Birthright

As in the past, between Mother's Day and Father's Day, we are asking you to take a baby bottle to fill with change. The donations received will be given to Birthright which assists pregnant mothers who are in need of help. Thank you!
