A Reflection

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." John 6:67-69

These words of Saint Peter present us with the conviction we must have when fidelity to the will of God becomes difficult. God is demanding. He wants everything from us. We will only obtain Heaven once we surrender everything over to the will of the Father and believe all that He has revealed. If we fail to do so before we die, we will need to be purified in Purgatory. There is no way around this. God is a demanding God to the greatest extent possible. The truth is that this is all good. It is good that God demands complete submission to His perfect will and teaching because these are exactly what is best for us. From time to time, because of our weak and fallen human nature, we can perceive God's will as too demanding and His teaching as too difficult. Do I really have to forgive everyone completely? Do I really have to lay my life down without reserve? Do I really have to keep the Commandments to perfection? Do I really have to be perfect as the Father in Heaven is perfect? Yes. But as we try to do so, we will experience many temptations to give up, thinking that God's will is too hard. Today's Gospel comes at the end of the beautiful Bread of Life Discourse in which our Lord taught clearly, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." At the beginning of today's Gospel, upon listening to Jesus' new teaching, many of His disciples murmured among themselves saying, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" This teaching of Jesus is "hard" in the sense that it requires a profound faith to understand completely. But just because something is hard to accept does not mean that we should not accept it. Peter's statement quoted above gives us the words we should say whenever we find God's will or His teaching difficult to accept. When that happens, we must hear Jesus ask us the same question He asked the Twelve: "Do you also want to leave?" Jesus will not try to manipulate us. He will not back down when He sees we are struggling. He will not lessen the requirement of being His faithful follower. Instead, He will give us the freedom to either believe or leave. And when we feel like leaving, we should always remember Peter's words, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." Peter's statement says all we need to know in the face of any interior conflict of faith. Sure, we could leave our Lord and do our own thing. But where would we go? To embrace the passing pleasures of the world? To what end? If we believe and are convinced that Jesus is the Holy One of God, then no matter how hard, no matter how demanding, no matter how difficult, we must embrace fidelity to God in all things. That act of fidelity, especially when we struggle with some interior conflict, is the key to unlocking the transforming power of God in our lives.

Helping Mom's at Zelie's Home

A couple of years ago, Zelie's Home opened its doors right here in Lakewood to support homeless women during pregnancy and the early parenting months. Since then, the Walking with Moms in Need ministry has been a steadfast partner in helping these mothers and their children thrive. Members of Walking with Moms have provided emergency baby formula, furniture for transitioning mothers, groceries, and much more. But perhaps the most rewarding contribution has been the regular meals shared with the Zelie's Home community. These gatherings, whether it's pulled pork BBQ, taco night, or sub night, offer not just nourishment but also a chance to connect with these courageous women striving to create a better life for themselves and their children. We extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone who has helped make these acts of kindness possible. If you're interested in getting involved or contributing to upcoming meals, please contact Sarah Blesi at 216-496-9310, or scan the QR code to sign up for meals. A special note of gratitude to K&K Portage Market for their generous support in making these meals a reality.

Praying for the Intentions of the Holy Father

As members of the universal Church, we are called to support the Holy Father in his mission to lead and guide the faithful. By praying for the Pope's intentions, we unite in solidarity with Catholics around the world, fostering a deeper communion within the Body of Christ. These prayers not only support the Pope's efforts to promote peace, justice, and the Gospel but also align our personal devotions with the broader mission of the Church. Let us remember to include the Holy Father's intentions in our daily prayers. Intention of the Holy Father for September: For the cry of the Earth - We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

Join the Avila's Vocation Prayer Group on the 1st Monday, after Mass, to pray for priests and seminarians in formation.

Word Among Us - Available in the Church

Copies of Word Among Us, a monthly publication of Mass readings, prayers, and spirituality, is available at the entrances of the parish church. Limited copies are available so make sure to grab yours.

Retirement of Cardinal O'Malley: A Prelate from our Parish

With deep gratitude and heartfelt appreciation, we announce the retirement of Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley, a son of Lakewood, Ohio, and a cherished member of our St. Luke Parish community. Cardinal O'Malley has faithfully served the Church, from his early days as a Capuchin priest to his esteemed role as Archbishop of Boston and Cardinal.

Cardinal O'Malley's journey from our parish to the global stage of the Church is a testament to his dedication and faith. Over the years, he has touched countless lives with his compassion, wisdom, and unwavering commitment to spreading the Gospel. His leadership and teachings have left an indelible mark on the Church and our community.

As Cardinal O'Malley steps into retirement, we express our sincere gratitude for his many years of devoted service. We invite all members of our Lakewood Catholic family to keep Cardinal O'Malley in your prayers, as he remains a beloved part of our community. May his retirement be filled with peace, joy, and the continued blessings of the Lord.
