Weekly Meditation

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings this Sunday turn our minds to the final things: the end of time, the coming of Christ, and our ultimate hope in eternal life. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks of days of darkness and tribulation, of the heavens shaken and the world awaiting the Son of Man coming in power. It's a powerful, even unsettling image—a reminder that our lives and our world are finite, and that the Lord will come to judge both the living and the dead.

What does this mean for us today?

Jesus's words remind us that life is fragile and temporary, but they're not a call to fear. Rather, they're a call to vigilance, to live in hopeful expectation of His coming. He invites us to live with our hearts open to God, attentive to His presence in the here and now. Even in the face of hardship, turmoil, or uncertainty, He urges us not to lose heart but to cling to the hope of His promise.

In the reading from Daniel, we hear that those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the stars. This wisdom comes from a life lived in God's presence—a life that reflects God's love, peace, and justice. The wise are those who recognize the signs of God's Kingdom already breaking into our world. They live not for themselves but for others, shining like stars in their love and service to their neighbors.

The reading from Hebrews reminds us that Christ's sacrifice on the cross has opened the way for our salvation. Unlike the old sacrifices that needed to be repeated, Christ's offering is once and for all. His sacrifice brings us a peace that cannot be shaken and an assurance that God's mercy will triumph in the end.

So, as we meditate on these readings, let's ask ourselves:

- How can I live in a way that prepares my heart to meet Christ, in this life and the next?
- Am I living with a sense of hope and vigilance, trusting in His promise of eternal life?
- Am I shining with God's light, bringing hope and peace to those around me?

Let us bring these questions to prayer this week, asking God for the grace to live with hope, love, and courage, trusting that He is with us, leading us through every season and every challenge, until we are gathered to Him in the fullness of time. May we keep our eyes fixed on the horizon, living each day in the light of eternity.

Breakfast with Santa - December 8

Save the date for breakfast with Santa on December 8. The Knights of Columbus will be hosting this breakfast with Santa after the 9am and 11am Masses. Santa will also be available for pictures. We hope you and your family will be able to join us for this wonderful community gathering.

Food Pantry Box

Every day, people from our community visit the St. Luke Food Pantry Box in front of the rectory to take what they need and to give what they can. As the holidays approach, the need only grows, and our food pantry box is one small way we can support each other. If you're able to help, we welcome non-perishable and unexpired food donations at any time of day. Many people contribute, and together, we're making a difference. St. Edward High School is also helping meet this need with its own pantry box, located on the front lawn off Detroit Avenue, providing another nearby location for those in need. Here are a few ideas of what to give:

- Canned items (vegetables, fruits, soups)
- Pantry basics (pasta, rice, grains, cereals)
- Nut butters and canned proteins (tuna, chicken)

Thank you for any donations you're able to share! Each item you give brings hope and relief to those around us.

Seven Sisters Apostolate

It used to be that the women in a parish took special care for the priest's needs in bringing him meals, but these days there's a consciousness of priests needing prayer! The Seven Sisters Apostolate assures a holy hour is prayed each day of the week for the intention of a specific priest—a lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ. Seven women are needed. Every week, each woman makes a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament on the day she's chosen as hers. Do you hear how great is this divine invitation! Is God nudging you to say 'Here I am Lord,' for him? For more information about the Seven Sisters check out their website sevensistersapostolate.org, or contact Patti 234-222-0353.

Thanksgiving Praise and Worship

Join us Wed, Nov 27, 7pm at St Luke for Thanksgiving Praise & Worship. It's a one-hour prayer service with Adoration, Benediction, Worship songs, and prayer. If you know anything about Worship music...the chorus repeats over and over...but the songs are chosen so the words can become your prayer. For those that would like to join, we'll head to a nearby restaurant for dinner and drinks afterward. Hope to see you there...

Community Meal

Join us for The St. Luke Community Meal this Wednesday in McBride Hall! We welcome anyone in need to come and enjoy a nutritious meal and the warmth of community fellowship.

- Location: McBride Hall, St. Luke Church
- Doors Open: 5:30 PM

If you or someone you know would benefit from a meal, please spread the word! Our Lakewood community offers many opportunities to gather for a meal. Each week, there are at least two, often three, community meals hosted by various churches and faith-based organizations across Lakewood. Everyone is welcome to attend, and no reservations are needed. To find more information on other community meals and resources in Lakewood, scan the QR code below:

Ever wonder about...

the poor boxes in our church? Yes, they are beautiful antiques, but they are still used to collection donations for our St. Vincent De Paul Society. So, when you stop and bless yourself with the holy water at the doors, reach into your pockets and put that loose change in our poor boxes. It will be put to good use. Thank you!

Pro Orantibus Day

On Thursday, November 21st, the Church will celebrate Pro Orantibus Day, ("For Those Who Pray"), the Memorial of Mary's Presentation in the Temple. Presently, we have three diocesan Cloistered Communities: Carmel of the Holy Family, OCD; Poor Clare Colettines, PCC; Poor Clares of Perpetual Adoration, PCPA. Pope Francis has strongly encouraged the faithful to express appreciation to cloistered women and men religious in special ways, such as by offering up their prayers, by making visits to monasteries and cloistered convents, by sending cards or letters to contemplative religious, and by coordinating school or catechetical activities. For more information visit: www.cloisteredlife.com.

Instructions:

1. Cook the Bacon: In a soup pot over medium heat, add the bacon pieces and cook until they're crisp and the fat has rendered. Remove the bacon with a slotted spoon and set aside. Pour off most of the grease, but leave a little in the pot for flavor.
2. Sauté the Vegetables: Return the pot to medium-high heat and add the onion, carrot, and celery. Stir and cook for about 2 minutes, then add the diced potatoes. Cook for an additional 5 minutes, seasoning with salt, pepper, and Cajun spice.
3. Add Broth and Simmer: Pour in the broth and bring the soup to a gentle boil. Let it cook for about 10 minutes, or until the potatoes are starting to become tender. In a separate bowl, whisk together the flour and milk until smooth, then pour this mixture into the soup, stirring well. Allow the soup to cook for another 5 minutes.
4. Blend Part of the Soup: Carefully remove half to two-thirds of the soup and blend it in batches in a blender or food processor until completely smooth. Return the blended portion to the pot and stir to combine. Reheat the soup over low heat, tasting and adjusting seasonings as needed.
5. Finish with Cream and Parsley: Stir in the heavy cream and most of the minced parsley, reserving a little parsley for garnish.
6. Serve: Ladle the soup into bowls, and top with the reserved crispy bacon, a sprinkle of grated cheese, and a garnish of fresh parsley.
