Weekly Meditation

When I was a young boy in Burlington, Vermont, my dad had a good friend named Phil who owned a sporting goods store. I loved sports, so meandering the treasure-filled aisles was an unmitigated joy. One afternoon, we were shopping for a baseball glove. Dad said to me, "Hey Johnny, see that man who just walked into the store? That's Phil." I remember being fascinated and a little terrified. I recall thinking, "That man right there is in charge of everything in this store!" He reigned over every ball, sneaker, jersey, and sweatsuit. Phil became a family friend. And he was a good owner. The store flourished, and I found myself even more at peace every time I went there. I felt a new hope and even responsibility for the store to flourish.

To say that Christ is the King of the Universe means that Jesus has absolute authority over everything in it. It should fill us with awe and fascination. He is in charge. The world and everything in it are finally his. Knowing that he knows and loves us should make us also feel a deep peace at being a part of his universe. This leads us to want his kingdom to flourish, to play some responsible role in it.

We advance his kingdom by promoting the truth. "Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice," Christ the King proclaims. In Phil's store, it was about the truth of athletics. In our world, it's all about the truth of all creation, especially the dignity of the human person, made by and for our loving God. Let's rejoice that we know the true king and commit to the flourishing of his kingdom.

St. Luke Giving Tree

This weekend, our St. Luke Giving Tree will be placed in the church, ready to spread the joy of Christmas to those in need. Over the next few weeks, we invite you to take a tag from the tree and share in this meaningful tradition of generosity. This year, we are focusing on supporting organizations within our community, including St. Augustine Health Center, Zellie's Home (supporting moms in need), The Centers, O'Neill Nursing and Assisted Living Residents, Community Meal, and many others. In addition, a complementary Giving Tree for our PSR students will assist Birthright, allowing our young learners to embrace the spirit of giving. Please do not wrap your gift unless the tag specifically requests it, and attach the tag securely to your gift. Gifts should be dropped off in McBride Hall the weekend of December 14th and 15th, 15 minutes before or after the Masses. Thank you for making Christmas brighter for so many in our community. Your kindness and generosity truly embody the spirit of the season.

Thanksgiving Praise and Worship

Join us Wed, Nov 27, 7pm at St Luke for Thanksgiving Praise & Worship. It's a one-hour prayer service with Adoration, Benediction, Worship songs, and prayer. If you know anything about Worship music...the chorus repeats over and over...but the songs are chosen so the words can become your prayer. For those that would like to join, we'll head to a nearby restaurant for dinner and drinks afterward. Hope to see you there...

The Final Recipe Before Thanksgiving

To all those who enjoyed the recipe series, thank you for reading. My last recommendation before Thanksgiving. The Pumpkin Pie. Just pick that item up at Costco - save yourself the trouble. They taste great, are massive, and worth every penny. Add whip cream for flavor.
