Divine Mercy Sunday

"Souls perish in spite of My bitter Passion. I am giving them the last hope of salvation; that is, the Feast of My Mercy." — Jesus to St. Faustina (Diary #965) Today is the Feast of Mercy—the day our Savior pours out the fullness of His love in what He Himself called "the last hope of salvation." Jesus' words to St. Faustina are not gentle suggestions or pious poetry—they are a burning plea from the depths of His Sacred Heart. "On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy... Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet" (Diary #699).

This is not just another Sunday. This is the day when Heaven bends low to embrace earth. When Jesus opens every divine floodgate of grace. When He says with complete tenderness and authority: "I want to grant complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy" (Diary #1109).

What He offers today is astonishing: the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. The soul is not only healed—it is made new. "Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (Diary #300). How can we possibly comprehend such mercy?

We don't. We simply receive it.

"My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity" (Diary #699). It is for the most broken, the most ashamed, the most exhausted soul. "The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy" (Diary #723).

This mercy is not earned. It is not deserved. It is freely given by a God who bled and died for us and who still cries out: "Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy" (Diary #699). This is a feast not only of consolation but of urgency.

But mercy is not meant to stop with us. "There must also be deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me... You must not shrink from this or try to absolve yourself from it" (Diary #742). We are called to become living reflections of His Divine Mercy—to forgive, to be patient, to love those who wound us, and to never turn away from a suffering soul.

As you gaze today upon the Image of Divine Mercy, with rays of red and pale light flowing from Christ's Heart, remember what He told St. Faustina: "Tell all people, My daughter, that I am Love and Mercy itself..." (Diary #1074).

So come. Go to Confession. Receive Him in the Eucharist. Open your heart to His unimaginable tenderness. Today is the day of Mercy. Don't let it pass you by.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Hallow

We at St. Luke Church are thrilled to announce that we'll be partnering with Hallow this year, the #1 prayer app! Through prayer and meditation rooted in the Catholic faith, Hallow helps people grow closer to God and find peace. Users are able to pray alongside Fr. Mike, Sr. Miriam, Mark Wahlberg, Jonathan Roumie, + many more. The app also offers mental health and sleep content, audiobooks, and sacred music.

All parishioners – subscribers and those on the free version – are invited to be a part of St. Luke's parish page in the app. There, you're able to create a profile, share prayer requests, and take part in prayer challenges together.

To join, visit hallow.com/parish, search (zip code is fastest - 44107), and follow the prompts. If you're brand new to Hallow, you'll be given a special $1 trial which gives access to all the app's premium content. If you'd like to forgo and remain on the free version, simply hit "Skip" and you'll have access to our parish page.

Throughout the year, we'll take part in a series of prayer challenges together - stay tuned for announcements!

We look forward to praying with you!

Prayer Ministry Update

Saint Clement Intercessory Prayer Ministry began in August of last year and we are growing! We now have 20 active members who pray for others in our Parish. We are also working in collaboration with the Seven Sister Apostolate and have coverage for Fr. Kevin, Fr. Patrick, and now Fr. Peter Paul. The Seven Sister Apostolate is a group of seven women who pray for the needs of the pastor first being met, then sponsoring our parochial vicar, and now our priest in residence. Each group of seven sisters prays one assigned day of the week per assigned priest for a total of 21 apostolates. The unique thing about this is that it is done in the Adoration Chapel which is access at St. Clement Parish. It is a wonderful place to pray in silence and reverence before the most sacred body of Christ. Working together in tandem with our prayer ministry, the Seven Sister Apostolate and our Adoration Chapel are strengthening the unity of the church between our three cluster parishes. If you would like to be a prayer partner in any of these three ministries, contact Jean Smith (Prayer Ministry Coordinator) at 216-536-8693, or Mark Ronan (Adoration Chapel Coordinator) at 216-218-1951.
