6th Sunday of Easter

John 14:23-29

Jonathan Haidt's 2024 book entitled "The Anxious Generation" argues that today's kids are marked by significant increases in anxiety, as the title suggests. Smartphones, social media, economic uncertainty, the chaos of a global pandemic, fear regarding climate change, and the so-called "meaning crisis" all contribute to strikingly high levels of anxiety in young people today. I'm a bit older than this generation, but I feel it, too. The world can be too much to handle.

The Gospel this week offers a stunning solution for troubled souls. To his overwhelmed and anxious disciples, the risen Jesus says, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you" (John 14:27). His peace is that of the one who was overwhelmed on the cross and then conquered death by the power of his divinity, his bond of love with the Father. He offers us this unshakeable peace.

Of course, mental illness does not magically disappear because of the risen Jesus. But he does walk with us and offer us his peace in the midst of our suffering. The peace the world gives is not like his because it is weak, uncertain, and self-generated. Jesus' peace is strong, sure, and given as a gift from God. He gives it to us amid our anxiety. Will you receive it as a gift? I hope so. He wants to fill the hearts of this generation with his peace.

St. James Pancake Breakfast for El Salvador

St. James will be hosting a pancake breakfast on Sunday, May 25 after the 10:30 mass for the Lakewood Catholic Community to welcome the young men from El Salvador who will be doing roofing work this summer in the Cleveland area. This is an incredible opportunity for these men to earn money to improve their family life in El Salvador, and maybe even purchase a home. There is no charge for the breakfast, but we will have a basket where you can make a donation to the men. A $5 or $10 gift certificate or a small cash donation would be so welcome. If you are a high school or college student or adult who speaks Spanish please let us know if you could sit with men and serve as interpreters for those welcoming them. If you would like to assist in the planning/cooking/serving please contact Corky O'Sullivan, 216-407-7299 or Laureen Nowakowski, 201-370-4405.

C.L.O.W. – SUMMER BREAK

Children's Liturgy of the Word has concluded for the summer. We thank all our young children and dedicated volunteers for participating. We look forward to welcoming everyone back in the fall. Stay tuned later for updates about our return date.

THANK YOU! The St. James annual Spring Cleaning was held on May 10th with an incredible team of volunteers. A big thank you to the James Gang members, as well as St. James Boy Scout Troop 279 and their parents. The holy water fonts were polished, all the floors and pews were washed, and the altars, choir area, and sacristy got special attention. It was a community building event that concluded with pizza and chocolate cake.

Saint of the Week: St. Joan of Arc Feast Day: May 30

St. Joan of Arc, the young French heroine and martyr, was only a teenager when she answered God's call to defend her country during the Hundred Years' War. Guided by visions of saints and driven by deep faith, she led the French army to key victories, ultimately paving the way for Charles VII's coronation. Captured and condemned by her enemies, she was burned at the stake in 1431 at the age of 19. Joan's courage, conviction, and unwavering trust in God continue to inspire generations. She was canonized in 1920 and is the patron saint of France, soldiers, and those who face persecution for their faith.

CALLED BY THE SPIRIT

Gift Discernment Retreat

Saturday, June 7, 2025

Did you know that you are spiritually gifted?

God has given each of us at least one spiritual gift, also known as a charism at Baptism.

Pope Francis encourages us to use our charisms. "Our charisms are not an inheritance, safely guarded and entrusted to a small group for safekeeping; rather they are gifts of the Spirit integrated into the body of the Church."

What is a charism? How do I know my charisms?

Charisms are to be discovered, discerned and used to build the Kingdom.

Common charisms include: Encouragement, Hospitality, Mercy, Leadership, Service, Healing, Teaching, Missionary, Wisdom & more!

Come and discover your spiritual gifts!
