7th Sunday of Easter

John 17:20-26

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as he prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to his Father "that they may be brought to perfection as one" (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that he desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of his disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

— Father John Muir

Farewell and Blessings to Fr. Patrick

With hearts full of gratitude, we bid farewell to Fr. Patrick, who has faithfully served our parish with joy, wisdom, and deep pastoral care. Fr. Patrick has been a steady spiritual guide, a compassionate confessor, and a beloved presence in our community. Whether preaching with clarity and conviction, celebrating the sacraments, or simply offering a kind word and a smile, he has left a lasting mark on our hearts.

As he begins a new chapter as the Administrator of St. Bartholomew Parish, we send him forth with our prayers and support. While we will miss his presence among us, we rejoice knowing that another parish will be blessed by his leadership and priestly heart.

Fr. Patrick, thank you for your service, your prayerful witness, and the many ways you've helped draw us closer to Christ. May the Lord continue to bless your ministry abundantly.

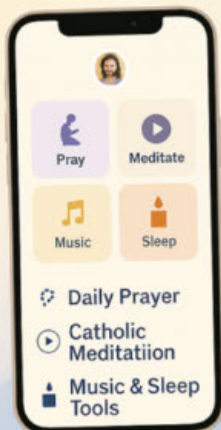

Go with our love and prayers!

Saint of the Week: St. Charles Lwanga and Companions Feast Day: June 3

St. Charles Lwanga is one of the 22 Ugandan martyrs who gave their lives for the faith in the late 19th century. A powerful witness to courage, purity, and steadfast faith, Charles served as a page in the royal court of King Mwanga of Buganda. Amid growing hostility toward Christians, Charles boldly protected younger pages from the king's immoral demands and helped instruct them in the Catholic faith. After the martyrdom of his mentor, Joseph Mukasa, Charles was baptized and quickly became a leader among the Christian converts in the royal court. When the king learned of their refusal to renounce the faith or submit to his abuses, Charles and his companions were imprisoned and later sentenced to death. On June 3, 1886, Charles was burned alive at Namugongo, his final prayer offering his life to God with peace and strength. Canonized by Pope St. Paul VI in 1964, St. Charles Lwanga is now honored as the patron saint of African youth and Catholic action. His legacy is a call to all of us—to live our faith with courage, integrity, and deep love for Christ, even when it demands great sacrifice.

DID YOU KNOW?

The scallop shell is the traditional emblem of Saint James the Greater, and is popular with pilgrims on the Way of St James to the apostle's tomb at Santiago de Compostela in Spain. Medieval Christians making the pilgrimage to his shrine often wore a scallop shell symbol on their hat or clothes. The pilgrim also carried a scallop shell with him, and would present himself at churches, castles, and abbeys etc., where he could expect to be given as much sustenance as he could pick up with one scoop. Probably he would be given oats, barley, and perhaps beer or wine. Thus even the poorest household could give charity without being overburdened. The association of Saint James with the scallop can most likely be traced to the legend that the apostle once rescued a knight covered in scallops. An alternative version holds that while St. James' remains were being transported to Spain from Jerusalem, a knight's horse fell into the water, and emerged covered in the shells.

The scallop shell also acts as a metaphor. The grooves in the shell, which come together at a single point, represent the various routes pilgrims traveled, eventually arriving at Santiago de Compostela. The shell is also a metaphor for the pilgrim. As the waves of the ocean wash scallop shells up on the shores of Galicia, God's hand also guides the pilgrims to Santiago. How many scallop shells can you find around our beautiful church?

A Word About the St. Colman Ministry & Food Bin Donations

Thanks to a new partnership with the St. Colman Ministry—an inter-parish outreach started by members of the King's Men—we now have year-round donation bins to support the food pantry at St. Colman Parish, which serves low-income and homeless individuals on Cleveland's West Side.

At St. Clement, the bin is located on the west side wall of the gathering area across from the stairs.

At St. James, you'll find the bin inside the upper church near the northwestern door.

At St. Luke, the bin is located in the back of the church. (Toiletries Only)

Please consider donating non-perishable, protein-rich items such as: tuna, chicken, stews and chili, peanut butter (all sizes), hash, hearty soups, beans, and canned fruits or vegetables. Canned goods with pull tabs are especially appreciated, as many clients may not have access to can openers. Thank you for your ongoing generosity in supporting this important work.

Did you know that you are spiritually gifted?

God has given each of us at least one spiritual gift, also known as a charism at Baptism.

What is a charism? How do I know my charisms?

Charisms are to be discovered, discerned and used to build the Kingdom.
