21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 13:22-30

I've been hiking Camelback Mountain in Phoenix, Arizona most of my life. It is a vigorous forty-five minutes to the top. Near the peak, the end suddenly appears much further away, and steeper. At that moment, a descending hiker often offers encouragement: "Keep going! The peak is right there. It's not as far as it looks. You can do it!" It usually works. After another five minute push, you summit and enjoy a glorious panorama of the Sonoran Desert in the Valley of the Sun.

When Jesus is asked about how many people are saved, he says: "Strive to enter through the narrow gate" (Luke 13:24). How many? Strive! Focus on your journey. What does heavenly census taking have to do with you or me? How would it help a hiker on a mountain to ask the others coming down, "How many people are going to make it to the top?" A normal response would be something like: "How is that a relevant question? Carry on!"

Jesus links one virtue directly to salvation: perseverance (cf. Matt 24:13; hypomone in Greek). Strive! Endure! Keep going! The one absolutely necessary virtue is perseverance, to not give up on our journey. The mountain we struggle to climb is often our own weakness, failures, and sins. Persevere in prayer. Keep celebrating the sacraments. Embrace daily duties. With God's grace, you are strong enough to keep going. Perhaps the peak is not as far away as you might fear. Keep going!

— Father John Muir

Canonization of Carlo Acutis & Pier Giorgio Frassati – September 7

On Sunday, September 7, 2025, Pope Leo XIV will canonize Blessed Carlo Acutis and Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati in Rome. Carlo (1991–2006), a teenager known as “God’s Influencer,” used his computer skills to share the beauty of the Eucharist, inspiring a new generation to holiness in the digital age. Pier Giorgio (1901–1925), a young man of deep faith and tireless charity, spent his short life serving the poor and championing justice, earning him the title “Man of the Beatitudes.” Their canonization is a landmark moment for the Church: Carlo will be the first millennial saint, reminding us that sanctity is not beyond the reach of our own time, while Pier Giorgio embodies the timeless call to bring Christ into the streets, classrooms, and workplaces of daily life. Together, they show that the path to sainthood is open to young people today—rooted in prayer, service, and courageous witness. May their example encourage us, especially our youth, to live boldly for Christ with creativity, joy, and love.

A Back-to-School Prayer

Loving God,

As our students begin a new school year, we entrust them to Your care.

Bless their minds with curiosity, their hearts with compassion, and their hands with a readiness to serve.

Guide teachers, staff, and parents with wisdom and patience, that they may nurture each child's gifts and help them grow in faith.

Protect our young people from discouragement and harm,
and fill them with courage to face challenges,
joy to celebrate successes,
and hope to persevere through every trial.

May this school year be a time of learning and discovery,
of deepening friendships and growing in virtue.
Above all, may our students learn to walk ever closer with You,
the source of all truth and life.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Congrats!

*You are cordially invited to a birthday celebration in honor of Mary,
the Mother of Jesus!*

Monday, September 8, 2025
at 7PM

The Rosary will be offered up for the cause of life.

The birthday party will take place with an actual birthday cake and the singing of Happy Birthday to Our Lady.

There will be punch, coffee and a wide variety of party foods.

This years celebration will include a video from the "G.K. Chesterton: The Apostle of Common Sense" series titled: Chesterton and the Mother of God. Gilbert Keith Chesterton was born an agnostic in 1874 and finally received into the Catholic Church in 1922 at the age of 48. Throughout his spiritual journey the Blessed Virgin Mary was always before his eyes. Chesterton certainly agreed with the maxim: "of Mary one can never say enough." He wrote reams of poetry about her from his youth to his dying day. He was Marian even before he was Christian. It would perhaps be true to say that his love for Our Lady led Chesterton to Christian faith.

All are welcome to attend this free event!

Our Lakewood Community

Join the St. Vincent de Paul Ministry – Serve Our Neighbors in Need

The St. Vincent de Paul Ministry in Lakewood is one of the quiet but powerful ways our Lakewood Catholic Community lives the Gospel. Every week, volunteers step forward to meet Christ in the poor—offering food, clothing, rent assistance, utility help, and, most importantly, dignity and hope to those in crisis.

This is not abstract charity. These are our neighbors—families choosing between groceries and rent, the elderly living alone on fixed incomes, parents working two jobs and still struggling to make ends meet. Through prayer, listening, and practical assistance, the St. Vincent de Paul Ministry becomes the face of Christ for them, and they for us.

The work is simple but life-changing: responding to calls for help, connecting people with resources, and offering compassion without judgment. Whether you have a few hours a month or a little more to give, your "yes", or you'd like to donate, it could all make an eternal difference.

If you feel called to be part of this ministry of mercy, contact Max Hall at mhall@stlukelakewood.org to learn more. Together, we can ensure no one in Lakewood faces hardship alone.
