Third Sunday of Advent

Matthew 11:2-11

When I was 11, I was riding my bike on a Friday night in Scottsdale, Arizona. I saw giant spotlights swirling in the sky. Something amazing had to be happening. I pedaled after them with excitement. Sweaty and tired, I arrived, only to find a used car lot. Bright lights, flapping banners, inflatable balloon men swaying wildly in the wind. I stood there, heart sinking. All that spectacle, and all my effort ... for this?

As life proceeds, we learn what it is like to pursue promising but fruitless searches. This week we hear Jesus ask the crowds regarding John the Baptist: "What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?" (Matthew 11:7). He's not just describing the crowd's mis-aimed pursuit. He's naming our tendency to chase after what's flashy but flimsy.

What are our swaying reeds? For me, it is endless video reels on my phone, worldly pleasures, entertainment in sports, and the good opinion of others. Inflated distractions that bend whichever way the wind blows. But they can't satisfy my soul. What are your flimsy reeds?

John the Baptist wasn't a swaying reed. He was rooted, grounded, unafraid to speak the solid truth. The people went to see him because, deep down, they were starving for something real.

This Advent, the Church asks us to reassess: What are we really looking for? Are we chasing the dazzling but hollow? Or are we seeking what is solid and lasting — that which points to Christ?

— Father John Muir

St. Luke Happenings

Pancake Breakfast at St. Luke

Hosted by the Knights of Columbus

Join us today, Sunday, December 14, for a festive Pancake Breakfast in McBride Hall following the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses at St. Luke. In the spirit of Advent come gather as a Catholic community for good food, warm conversation, and the kind of fellowship that strengthens the heart of parish life. The Knights of Columbus will be serving up a hearty breakfast with their trademark hospitality.

All are welcome. Come share the season.

A promotional graphic for the Hallow app. At the top, the text "Sign Up for Hallow" is in a large, white, serif font, with "LAKEWOOD CATHOLIC PARISHES" in a smaller, white, sans-serif font below it. In the center is a smartphone displaying the Hallow app interface. The app has a dark blue header with the word "Hallow" in white and "#1 Catholic Prayer App" below it. The main screen shows a grid of nine circular icons: a sun for "Daily", a moon for "Meditation", a musical note for "Sleep", an open book for "Bible", a portrait of a man for "Father Mike", a cross for "Saints", a rosary for "Rosary", a candle for "Minute Meditations", and a dove for "Calt". At the bottom of the phone screen are three navigation icons: a house, a speech bubble, and a person. Below the phone, the text "Get started at" is in a large, white, serif font, followed by "hallow.com/parish" in a large, white, serif font, and "Search by zip code (44107)" in a smaller, white, sans-serif font at the bottom.

St. Luke Giving Tree

As we enter the Advent season, keep in mind our annual St. Luke Giving Tree, which is located in the church. Each year, this beloved tradition spreads the joy of Christmas to those in need throughout our community. Through your generosity, we support local organizations including St. Augustine Health Center, Zelig's Home (for moms in need), The Centers, O'Neill Nursing and Assisted Living Residents, Community Meal, and many others. Please return wrapped gifts, with the tag attached, to St. Luke by December 14. Gifts can be dropped off in McBride Hall, at the stage, before/after the weekend Masses up till the due date. Thank you for your kindness and generosity to help those in our community.

Request for Bakery Donations

As we prepare to celebrate Fr. Kevin's farewell reception on Sunday, December 28, we're hoping to offer a warm, welcoming table for our Lakewood Catholic Community. To help make the gathering festive, we are asking for donations of bakery—homemade or store-bought—cookies, pastries, bars, or any simple treats that can be shared. If you are able to contribute, please contact Barb Price at the parish office: 216-521-0184. Your generosity will help us create a gracious send-off for Fr. Kevin and reflect the hospitality that defines the Lakewood Catholic Parishes. Thank you for considering this small but meaningful way to support the celebration.

Thank You for Your Remarkable Giving Tuesday Generosity

St. Luke Family, thank you for your generosity to our Giving Tuesday campaign in helping maintain our parish buildings for their continued use in worship, ministry, and sporting activities.

Your generosity reflects a community that believes in its mission and invests in its future. Each contribution becomes part of a larger story, one in which our parish continues to grow, welcome, serve, and carry the Gospel forward with confidence.

We are deeply grateful for your support and for the way you continually help St. Luke remain a place of faith and fellowship.

A Gift for You

In this season of holy expectancy, we are blessed by the quiet generosity of an anonymous parishioner who has made it possible for us to place a spiritual gift into your hands. To support your formation and fortify our parish's culture of prayer, we are offering An Introduction to Prayer by Bishop Robert Barron—a concise, compelling guide to encountering the Lord with renewed depth.

Copies are available in the back of the church. Please take one home at no cost, and allow it to accompany you through these Advent days of preparation and hope.

ST. JAMES GIVING TREE

As we enter this season of hope and generosity, our parish once again invites you to participate in our annual Holiday Giving Tree. This year, we are again honored to support Catholic Charities and the Division of Migration and Refugee Services, both of which provide essential care, dignity, and compassion to families in great need. Beginning November 30, you will find baskets filled with gift tags at the church entrances. Each tag lists a specific item that will help brighten Christmas for someone facing hardship. We encourage parishioners to take a tag, shop for the requested item, and return your gift unwrapped by December 14. Your kindness makes a real and immediate difference. For any questions, please contact Tina at tinaruts1@gmail.com

MOVIE NIGHT

Join us on Saturday, December 20, 7pm in Andrews Hall (St James lower level) for a FREE night at the movies. We will be showing "I Heard the Bells", the true story of poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, whose world is shaken by personal tragedy and national turmoil. Silenced by grief, Longfellow rediscovers his voice through the healing power of Christmas. We'll provide popcorn and pop...just come and enjoy! Hope to see you there!!

We Give Catholic

We are delighted to report that together we raised a total of $124,125 from 193 generous donors like yourself in our 2025 #weGiveCatholic campaign! Starting with an initial goal of $60,000, we repeatedly raised our target, finally setting it at $122,000—and surpassed that too! In addition, we will be awarded prize money of $2,000 from the Catholic Community Foundation for securing 1st place in the number of unique donors within our parish category.

This achievement was made possible through the extraordinary kindness of all our donors and campaign advocates. We extend special appreciation to our anonymous benefactor who provided the highly motivating $50k Matching Gift for our campaign. Many thanks to the Hayden family for their Fundraiser in memory of our beloved Francine Hayden. Thanks to all who prayed for the success of the campaign and worked hard to spread the word. Your support was indispensable! As you know, the proceeds will enable us to continue the vital repairs and partial roof replacement of our landmark church next year. Your gifts have truly made a difference for St. James.

CHRISTMAS PRAISE & WORSHIP

Join us Mon, Dec 15, 7pm at St Clement for Christmas Praise & Worship. It's a one-hour prayer service with Adoration, Benediction, Scripture, Worship songs, and prayer. The songs will be more "reflective" in nature, rather than "talking to Jesus". For those that would like to join, we'll head to a nearby restaurant for dinner and drinks afterward. Hope to see you there...

Please join us for coffee and donuts on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month after the 8:30am Mass. A special invitation is extended to new parishioners and visitors.

Thank you for everyone who came to the Pot Luck. We had 15 main dishes, many salads and can't forget the delicious desserts. A great big THANK YOU goes out to the ones who helped advertise, organize, set-up and clean up. Could not be a success without these helping hands.

Knights of Columbus – Lakewood Council 2643

Seeking Catholic Men of Action

The Knights of Columbus of Lakewood Council 2643 invite Catholic men to step forward in service, leadership, and fraternity. Our council is blessed to serve the four parishes of our Lakewood Catholic community—St. Luke, St. Clement, Transfiguration, and St. James—by offering our time, skills, and commitment wherever they are needed. We are Catholic men who strive to lead, serve, protect, and defend. We seek to become better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors, and role models by putting charity and community first. Founded in 1882 by Fr. Michael J. McGivney, now a candidate for sainthood, the Knights were established on the enduring principles of charity, unity, and fraternity. Their purpose was simple and profound: to provide assistance to the sick, the disabled, and families in need. Today, we continue that mission with the same conviction and hope. If you feel called to join a brotherhood rooted in faith and committed to action, we welcome you.

Preparing for Christmas: A Practical Spiritual Reflection

As Christmas draws near, the pace of life picks up and the heart can fall behind. But preparing for the Lord doesn't require grand gestures—just steady, intentional steps that make room for Him to enter.

Here are a few simple practices:

1. Carve out a moment of quiet.

Take one minute a day—over coffee, in the car, before bed—to rest in God's presence. Small silence creates real clarity.

2. Sit with a Gospel passage.

Choose one Advent or Nativity story and return to it through the week. Let the Word reshape your perspective.

3. Offer a small act of mercy.

Send a note, extend patience, forgive someone. These everyday choices soften the heart for Christ's arrival.

4. Simplify one thing.

Lighten a commitment or scale back a task. Creating space is itself a form of spiritual preparation.

5. Reconnect with the Sacraments.

Come to Confession or attend one extra Mass. These anchor us in the grace we're preparing to celebrate.

Christmas isn't something we sprint toward; it's something we ready our hearts to receive. Small steps make a wide path for the Lord.

Our Lakewood Community

Rock Salt Distribution - From the City of Lakewood

With the winter weather making its first appearance over Thanksgiving weekend, the Public Works team is filling the salt bins that allow residents to pick up rock salt for keeping their sidewalks and driveways clear. The boxes are located at Kauffman, Madison, Cove, and Lakewood Park as well as the Lakewood Dog Park. Residents may take home up to 5 gallons of salt for personal use. Contractors and businesses are prohibited from using this salt, and the box locations are under video surveillance to prevent abuse. Interested residents must bring their own shovel (a metal gardening shovel is recommended) and bucket, and must load the salt themselves. Please remember to secure the cover after use to help prevent the salt from hardening due to rain/moisture!
