Fourth Sunday of Advent

Matthew 1:18-24

A priest friend recently told me a remarkable story. One of his cousins reported having a vivid dream in which an angel told him the family needed to exhume their grandmother's body from a cemetery in New York and return it to her birthplace in Romania. She had been dead nearly 10 years. As you might expect, the family thought it was, well, crazy. But astonishingly they exhumed her body. It was incorrupt, showing no signs of decomposition. That experience sparked healing, faith, and reconciliation throughout the family.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Joseph also receives a dream. He's confused, afraid. But in the quiet of sleep, God speaks: "Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home" (Matthew 1:20). When he wakes, Joseph acts. He doesn't overanalyze or dismiss the message. He trusts, and acts.

God still speaks — not necessarily through literal dreams but through those deeper intuitions of the heart. St. Ignatius of Loyola taught that God's voice draws us into peace, courage, and love. But we have to listen to it. Advent is a time for stillness. As we prepare for Christ's coming, we're invited to enter that quiet space where God's voice can be heard.

When and how do you become most receptive to God? Is it in silence? In prayer? In nature? At Mass? This week, go there. Be still. Listen. And like Joseph, have the courage to act on what God shows you.

— Father John Muir

Women's Retreat: Joy on Life's Journey at the Jesuit Retreat House

Women are invited to step away from the pace of daily life and enter a time of prayer, renewal, and rest at the Jesuit Retreat House for a Women's Retreat titled Joy on Life's Journey, taking place Monday, January 12 at 2:00 PM through Wednesday, January 14 at 11:30 AM. This retreat includes two full days, with an optional third day, and features speakers Bob Kloos; Sister Jean Marian (Cookie) Crowley, SC; Annamarie Kachurek; the Chavez Brothers; and Fr. Bernie Owens, SJ. Through prayer, meditation, Mass, discussion, and quiet reflection, participants will explore how to cultivate and live the virtue of joy amid personal, domestic, and global challenges. The retreat cost ranges from $325-$475. The Jesuit Retreat Center is located at 5629 State Road, Parma, OH 44134. To learn more or to register, visit www.jesuitretreatcenter.org.

2026 March for Life in Washington DC with St. Anthony of Padua Parish

Join the 2026 March for Life in Washington, D.C. Members of the St. Anthony of Padua Pro-Life Ministry invite you to join their annual bus pilgrimage to the March for Life on January 22-23, 2026. The bus will depart from the St. Anthony parking lot, 6750 State Rd, Parma, OH 44134, at 7:00 AM on January 22. Pilgrims will travel to Maryland for an overnight stay at the Cambria Hotel in Rockville. That evening, the group will attend the Vigil Mass at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. On January 23, the group will take the Metro to visit the St. John Paul II Shrine and Museum before heading to the March for Life Rally and March. The bus will depart for home after the march, returning at approximately 11:30 PM. The bus fare is $50 per person. The hotel rate is $130 per room, based on double occupancy ($65 per person). To register and reserve your seat, please contact Mike at 216-403-2489 or email staofpbus@icloud.com. All are welcome to witness to the dignity of human life.

Support Catholic Education Through the Angel Scholarship Fund

You can help make a Lakewood Catholic Academy education accessible for more families—at no net cost to you. Through Ohio's Angel Scholarship Fund, your donation (up to $750 per individual or $1,500 per joint return) can be taken as a 100% state tax credit. Every dollar you give directly strengthens LCA's tuition assistance program and opens doors for students who rely on the generosity of our wider Catholic community. To participate, simply visit the Angel Scholarship Fund webpage by following the QR code, designate Lakewood Catholic Academy, make your gift, and claim your credit at tax time. Invest in a child's future. Invest in Catholic education.

Historic St. James The Art & Architecture of a Landmark Church

The Church of St. James is one of the most exotic sacred art structures in northeast Ohio, both inside and out. "Historic St. James, The Art and Architecture of a Landmark Church" by the late Tim Barrett and Lad Trepal is an acclaimed full color book published by The Friends of St. James, Inc.

Text from distinguished architectural historian, the late Tim Barrett, whose over 45 years of the study of the art and architecture of Greater Cleveland's diverse houses of worship, and exceptional high quality photographs by Lad Trepal, noted Cleveland commercial photographer and member of St. James, combine to celebrate the myriad architectural features and decorative arts of St. James.

This book would be a great gift for all who appreciate stunning church art and architecture or who have worshipped in this sacred space.

Price: $25 + shipping if mailed. To purchase your copy contact Tom Hayden at: 216-798-5523 or tahayden42@livecom (leave message if not answered.) Please make checks payable to Friends of St. James, Inc.

We are not able to accept credit cards at this time. VENMO accepted.

All proceeds benefit St. James Parish.

Donuts and Coffee

Donuts and Coffee are cancelled for Christmas Day and December 28. They will start up again on January 4. A special invitation to new parishioners and visitors to come downstairs after Mass on all other Sundays for good conversation and fellowship.

Catholic Men's Retreat

Catholic men are invited to deepen their faith and strengthen their spiritual lives at a Catholic Men's Retreat, taking place Friday, January 16 at 5:30 PM through Sunday, January 18 at 11:00 AM at the Jesuit Retreat Center. This retreat will be presented by Fr. Paul O'Connor, SJ; Tom Pussel; and Mike Ragon, and is designed for men seeking to grow in their personal relationship with God, engage in meaningful conversation, gain deeper insight into Christian manhood, and develop a practical, lived spirituality. The retreat includes prayer, reflection, communal worship, and time for rest and renewal. The cost ranges from $325-$475. Space is limited. To learn more and register, visit www.jesuitretreatcenter.org.

GUIDED TOURS | LAST SUNDAYS OF THE MONTH, AFTER 10:30 MASS

We are delighted to offer guided tours of the church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all, Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.

St. Clement Happenings

Please join us for coffee and donuts on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month after the 8:30am Mass. A special invitation is extended to new parishioners and visitors.

Congrats!

Giving Tuesday Thank You

The 2025 We Give Catholic Campaign is complete. St. Clement raised $6,000 with 25 donors participating. Throughout the diocese more than 11,000 donors contributed $4,300,000 to hundreds of Catholic organizations serving our communities. At St. Clement we are blessed to have participation in so many different giving opportunities. Some programs are once a year like the We Give Catholic Campaign or the Giving Tree, while others like our St. Augustine Hunger Center monthly collection, the St. Vincent dePaul Society and St. Colemans food collections continue year round. Thank you so much for your continued generosity to these programs.

Was 2025 a challenging year for your marriage?

Our Lakewood Community

Rock Salt Distribution - From the City of Lakewood

With the winter weather making its first appearance over Thanksgiving weekend, the Public Works team is filling the salt bins that allow residents to pick up rock salt for keeping their sidewalks and driveways clear. The boxes are located at Kauffman, Madison, Cove, and Lakewood Park as well as the Lakewood Dog Park. Residents may take home up to 5 gallons of salt for personal use. Contractors and businesses are prohibited from using this salt, and the box locations are under video surveillance to prevent abuse. Interested residents must bring their own shovel (a metal gardening shovel is recommended) and bucket, and must load the salt themselves. Please remember to secure the cover after use to help prevent the salt from hardening due to rain/moisture!

Mass Intention Books Now Open for 2026

The Mass intention books for St. Clement, St. Luke, and St. James are now open for the 2026 calendar year. Parishioners are invited to schedule intentions for loved ones—whether for the repose of a soul, for the intentions of another, in thanksgiving, or for special needs. In keeping with Church norms, each Mass may have one intention, and intentions are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Parishioners may request multiple intentions throughout the year, though we ask for fairness and pastoral balance when scheduling weekend and holy day Masses. The stipend offering for each intention is $10. To schedule a Mass, please contact the consolidated parish office of the Lakewood Catholic Parishes. Your prayerful participation is a profound gift to those you remember and to the life of our Church.
