4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 5:1-12a

A priest I know was once falsely accused of a terrible crime. The claim was wild and easily disproved, but for a while, it didn't matter. In the atmosphere shaped by the abuse crisis of the early 2000s, the public assumption was guilty until proven innocent. His name was dragged through the mud, and his ministry placed on hold. I had the privilege — and the burden — of walking closely with him during that time.

He was angry. He was confused. He felt abandoned and deeply disoriented. The last thing on his mind was the words of Jesus in today's Gospel: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me ... Rejoice and be glad" (Matthew 5:11-12). Rejoice? He felt anything but.

And yet... something holy slowly grew in him. Not overnight, and not without pain. But as the truth came to light and his name was cleared, I watched him become more Christlike — more patient, more compassionate, more detached from human approval.

Maybe you haven't faced something so dramatic. But where do you feel judged? Misrepresented? Overlooked? Maybe someone else got the credit or the promotion. Maybe someone you love isn't getting their due. In those moments, the Cross of Jesus is near. When we feel accused, that's when we ask him for the grace not just to endure, but somehow, mysteriously, to rejoice and be glad.

— Father John Muir

Pray for Our Candidates and Catechumens

As members of our parish family journey through the OCIA process, we ask you to keep our Candidates and Catechumens in your prayers in a special way. These individuals are responding to God's call with courage and openness, preparing to enter more fully into the life of Christ and His Church through the sacraments. Their path involves learning, conversion of heart, and a deepening relationship with the Lord—work that is sustained by grace and strengthened by the prayers of the community. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide them, grant them perseverance, and fill them with peace and joy as they continue this sacred journey toward full communion with the Church.

Scam Alert: Fraudulent Messages Claiming to Be from Fr. Cameron

We have been made aware that several parishioners have received scam messages from someone falsely identifying themselves as "Fr. Cameron," requesting money or gift cards in various ways. Please know that Fr. Cameron will never contact parishioners by text, email, or social media to ask for financial assistance, gift cards, or personal information. If you receive a message of this nature, do not respond, do not send money, and please delete the message immediately. If you are unsure about the legitimacy of a request, contact the parish office directly to verify. Thank you for your vigilance and for helping us safeguard our parish community.

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at (216) 334 -2999 or via email at response\_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

Mass Intention Books Now Open

The Mass intention books for St. Clement, St. Luke, and St. James are now open for the 2026 calendar year. Parishioners are invited to schedule intentions for loved ones—whether for the repose of a soul, for the intentions of another, in thanksgiving, or for special needs. Intentions are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. Parishioners may request multiple intentions throughout the year, though we ask for fairness and pastoral balance when scheduling weekend and holy day Masses. The stipend offering for each intention is $10. To schedule a Mass, please contact the consolidated parish office of the Lakewood Catholic Parishes. Your prayerful participation is a profound gift to those you remember and to the life of our Church.
