Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Matthew 26:14-27:66

Just prior to this week's Passion narrative in St. Matthew's Gospel, there is a small, striking story describing a woman's scandalous action toward Jesus: "A woman came up to him with an alabaster jar of costly perfumed oil, and poured it on his head" (Matthew 26:7). The ointment was pure nard, worth more than 300 denarii. A year's wages. Maybe a dowry, maybe a family inheritance. In any case, she breaks it. She does not measure or ration. She pours it all out, irreversibly, over Jesus. Why does this image begin Holy Week?

Because what she does with the jar, Jesus will soon do with his life. The jar must be broken so the fragrance can be released. Jesus' body will be broken so his priceless divine and human love can be poured out. She gives everything, just as he is about to give everything. And He sees it: "She has done a good thing for me" (Matthew 26:10). Her act is lavish, impractical, scandalous in its apparent wastefulness. And he loves it. It is what Holy Week is all about.

What jar are you still holding onto? Your time? Your comfort? Your plan for how life should go? Don't just wave palms today. Let yourself be broken open so your love, too, can be poured out.

Lenten Challenge: Offer something costly to Jesus this Holy Week — not out of guilt, but love. Your attention. Your forgiveness. Your time. Break the jar. Trust that nothing poured out for him is ever wasted.

— Father John Muir

Holy Week Schedule in Lakewood

April 2nd - Holy Thursday Mass at St. Clement at 7:00pm.

April 3rd - Good Friday Service at 3:00pm at St. James, with Stations of the Cross take place at 12:00 noon.

April 4th - Easter Vigil Mass at St. Luke at 8:00pm, with the Food Blessing taking place at 12 noon.

April 5th - Easter Sunday Mass:
St. Luke: 8am, 10am, 12 noon
St. Clement: 8:30am
St. James: 10:30am

Holy Night Hike – Holy Thursday Pilgrimage

Young adults are invited to take part in the Holy Night Hike on Holy Thursday, April 2, 2026, a walking pilgrimage to several churches open for prayer before the Blessed Sacrament following the Mass of the Lord's Supper. Seven churches on Cleveland's near west side will remain open until 11:00 PM, inviting participants to walk together and spend time in quiet prayer at each altar of repose.

You may begin at any of the participating churches: St. John Cantius (906 College Ave.), St. Wendelin (2281 Columbus Rd.), St. Emeric (1860 W. 22nd St.), St. Malachi (2459 Washington Ave.), St. Augustine (2486 W. 14th St.), St. Andrew Kim (2310 W. 14th St.), and St. Patrick (3602 Bridge Ave.). St. Mary of the Assumption Chapel at Saint Ignatius High School will also be open for adoration.

All are welcome. Share the experience on social media using #HolyNightHike.

Theology of the Body One-Day Course

You are invited to a special Theology of the Body One-Day Course titled "This Is My Body, Given Up for You." This engaging day of formation will explore some of life's most important questions: What does it mean to be human? How do we find the happiness we long for? How can we speak with our children about marriage and sexuality in a faithful and meaningful way? Participants will experience dynamic presentations from Theology of the Body experts, opportunities for large-group discussion, and Q&A sessions designed to deepen understanding of St. John Paul II's powerful teaching on the human person and God's plan for love and life. Breakfast, lunch, and study materials will be provided, and 0.5 CEUs are available for those who need them. The course will take place on Saturday, April 11 from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM at Our Lady of the Angels Parish in Cleveland, followed by the opportunity to attend the 4:00 PM Mass. Featured speakers include Jen Ricard and Fr. Rob Ramser. The cost is $45 per person. To register, visit tobcle.org/events.

Teatime for Peace: Interfaith Community Dialogue (10-Year Anniversary)

All are invited to attend an interfaith community dialogue focused on building understanding and solidarity with our Muslim neighbors. This event will take place at West Shore Unitarian Universalist Church, 20401 Hilliard Blvd., Rocky River, on Saturday, April 18, 2026. Check-in begins at 1:30pm, with the program running from 2:00–4:00pm. Tea and light refreshments will be provided. Registration is strongly recommended due to limited seating. To register call the West Shore church office at 440-333-2255. The facility offers ample parking and is wheelchair accessible.

Theology on the Rocks West

– For Adults 40 & Over

Join us on Monday, April 13 from 7:00–8:30 PM at the Westside Irish American Club (8559 Jennings Rd., Olmsted Township) for an evening of faith, fellowship, and engaging conversation. Blind Cleveland broadcaster and Touched by Heaven podcast host Trapper Jack, along with his wife Elizabeth, will share powerful stories drawn from real-life encounters with God that are happening today. Through humor, heartfelt storytelling, and a broadcaster's ear for the remarkable, they will reflect on moments of unmistakable grace and divine intervention that invite us to consider a profound question: If God is still speaking... are we listening? The cost is $15 per person and includes light appetizers. A cash bar will also be available. Doors open at 6:30 PM, and advance tickets are recommended. Register in advance at www.theologyontherockswest.com.

Sounds of St. James Concert

On Sunday, April 19th, Sounds of St. James presents a concert of beautiful, glorious choral music to take place at St. James. "An Afternoon of Sacred Music" will feature The Early Music Singers of Case Western Reserve directed by Elena Bailey, Aeterna Chamber Choir directed by James Flood, members of Trobar and special guests performing works by Josquin, Palestrina, Bach, Mozart, Bruckner and more. Free admission; a freewill offering will be taken up. A reception will follow the concert. Come meet the artists!

"To the Heights" Father & Son Retreat

Fathers and sons in grades 7–12 are invited to a special day of faith, fellowship, and formation at the "To the Heights" Father & Son Retreat, inspired by the spirit and witness of St. Pier Giorgio Frassati. The retreat will take place on Sunday, April 26, from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe. The day will include dynamic speakers, games, discussions, Eucharistic Adoration, and opportunities for fathers and sons to grow together in faith. Lunch and helpful resources will also be provided. The retreat will feature keynote speaker Elvis Grbac, former NFL quarterback. The cost is $35 per person, and scholarships are available. To learn more or register, visit tobcle.org. For questions, contact rlewis@tobcle.org.

Ministry to the Incarcerated

"I was in prison and you visited me... Truly I tell you, just as you did it to the one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." - Matthew 25

Do you have a heart for serving others? The Jail Ministry team serving at the Lorain County Jail is looking for compassionate, committed volunteers to share God's love with incarcerated individuals through prayer, conversation, and spiritual support. Whether you're gifted in listening, teaching, praying, or simply showing up—even working from home—there's a place for you. No experience necessary, just a willing spirit and a heart for restoration. To learn more, contact Michelle Tibbetts at 216-906-2886 or tibbettslaw@gmail.com

Stirring Up Hope is coming to St. James!

Stirring Up Hope is a collaborative soup initiative launched by Old Stone Church (soon to be called First Presbyterian Church of Cleveland) and Edwins Restaurant. It is currently served weekly on Wednesdays from 11-1 at five locations, including Old Stone Church and Church of the Covenant in Cleveland Heights. St. James has been accepted as the sixth location, and we will be serving the first Wednesday of the month from 11-1. Edwins provides the artisan soup and volunteers manage the distribution. The initiative aims to provide meals, foster community, and offer kindness. We are provided with the soup, bagels, spoons, and bowls with lids. Beginning Wednesday, April 1, we will be outside at the bottom of the steps to St. James dishing out soup and kindness. If you are interested in volunteering please contact Mary Gannon 216-401-8762, or Laureen Nowakowski, 201-370-4405. We are especially in need of a volunteer(s) who can carry the kettle from Andrews Hall to the front of St. James at 10AM and return it at 1PM. We also need volunteers to serve the soup. And all are invited to stop by on April 1.

BIRDIES FOR BABIES: TopGolf Edition

Swing into action for a great cause! The 6th Annual Birdies for Babies is Thursday, April 30 at Topgolf. Enjoy two hours of golf, exciting raffle prizes, and fellowship—all while supporting Zelie's Home and the women and children it serves. Golfers $100 | Spectators $50. Sponsorships available. Register at www.zelieshome.org/events or scan the QR code

NIGHT OF JOY

Join us Thurs, April 9, 7-9pm in the St Luke church for the Night of Joy simulcast, an evening of Eucharistic adoration, worship, and reflection...reminding us that the victory of the Resurrection is not meant to be celebrated only on Easter day or even during the Easter season, but throughout everyday Christian life. This evening, provided by Franciscan University, will include an uplifting talk by Father Jonathan St André, as well as powerful worship and prayer led by Father Dave Pivonka. This is a great opportunity to get a taste of Franciscan University without leaving Lakewood!! Feel free to come and go as your schedule allows. Hope to see you there...
