EASTER SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-8

Easter Message

On behalf of Fr. Cameron Popik, Fr. Peter Paul, Deacon Tom Bizon, and the entire staff, we offer our prayerful Easter greetings. Together we have walked the road of Lent as a Lakewood Catholic Family; now we stand in the light of the Resurrection, where hope is restored and new life begins. May the risen Christ renew your faith, fill your homes with peace, and strengthen us as one parish family in mission. A blessed and joyful Easter to all of you and your families.

April 5, 2026

Easter Sunday

John 20:1-9

Zander Price was the fastest kid at my grade school. He won every race on Field Day. To me, his swiftness meant he was the greatest. Zander was the best.

It's the same with the speediest Apostle on Easter morning. John tells us he "ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first." (John 20:4) But only after Peter entered did John go in, see the burial cloths, and believe. Here is a symbol of two dimensions of the Church. John, the beloved disciple, represents the contemplative, mystical life: affection, prayer, intimacy. Peter, the rock, represents the Church's institutional life: steady, authoritative, structured...but slower.

Of course, John runs faster! Love is the heartbeat of Christian faith, so love will always arrive first. Peter's role is, in a sense, secondary. He arrives later, but is still very much needed. John waits for him. The Church must be built, balanced, protected, and led. Love without structure can vanish; structure without love becomes lifeless.

This dynamic is not just historical — it is personal. In you, there is a John who longs to run to the tomb in love. Let him run! Pray, sing, love Jesus. There is also a Peter, who eventually gets to the tomb and takes charge. The Risen Christ wants both. Remember: if you want to get to the mystery of Jesus' resurrection fast...love him, for love is best.

— Father John Muir

NIGHT OF JOY

Join us Thurs, April 9, 7-9pm in the St Luke church for the Night of Joy simulcast, an evening of Eucharistic adoration, worship, and reflection...reminding us that the victory of the Resurrection is not meant to be celebrated only on Easter day or even during the Easter season, but throughout everyday Christian life. This evening, provided by Franciscan University, will include an uplifting talk by Father Jonathan St André, as well as powerful worship and prayer led by Father Dave Pivonka. This is a great opportunity to get a taste of Franciscan University without leaving Lakewood!! Feel free to come and go as your schedule allows. Hope to see you there...

Theology of the Body One-Day Course

You are invited to a special Theology of the Body One-Day Course titled "This Is My Body, Given Up for You." This engaging day of formation will explore some of life's most important questions: What does it mean to be human? How do we find the happiness we long for? How can we speak with our children about marriage and sexuality in a faithful and meaningful way? Participants will experience dynamic presentations from Theology of the Body experts, opportunities for large-group discussion, and Q&A sessions designed to deepen understanding of St. John Paul II's powerful teaching on the human person and God's plan for love and life. Breakfast, lunch, and study materials will be provided, and 0.5 CEUs are available for those who need them. The course will take place on Saturday, April 11 from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM at Our Lady of the Angels Parish in Cleveland, followed by the opportunity to attend the 4:00 PM Mass. Featured speakers include Jen Ricard and Fr. Rob Ramser. The cost is $45 per person. To register, visit tobcle.org/events.

Theology on the Rocks West

– For Adults 40 & Over

Join us on Monday, April 13 from 7:00–8:30 PM at the Westside Irish American Club (8559 Jennings Rd., Olmsted Township) for an evening of faith, fellowship, and engaging conversation. Blind Cleveland broadcaster and Touched by Heaven podcast host Trapper Jack, along with his wife Elizabeth, will share powerful stories drawn from real-life encounters with God that are happening today. Through humor, heartfelt storytelling, and a broadcaster's ear for the remarkable, they will reflect on moments of unmistakable grace and divine intervention that invite us to consider a profound question: If God is still speaking... are we listening? The cost is $15 per person and includes light appetizers. A cash bar will also be available. Doors open at 6:30 PM, and advance tickets are recommended. Register in advance at www.theologyontherockswest.com.

Sounds of St. James Concert

On Sunday, April 19th, Sounds of St. James presents a concert of beautiful, glorious choral music to take place at St. James. "An Afternoon of Sacred Music" will feature The Early Music Singers of Case Western Reserve directed by Elena Bailey, Aeterna Chamber Choir directed by James Flood, members of Trobar and special guests performing works by Josquin, Palestrina, Bach, Mozart, Bruckner and more. Free admission; a freewill offering will be taken up. A reception will follow the concert. Come meet the artists!

Teatime for Peace: Interfaith Community Dialogue (10-Year Anniversary)

All are invited to attend an interfaith community dialogue focused on building understanding and solidarity with our Muslim neighbors. This event will take place at West Shore Unitarian Universalist Church, 20401 Hilliard Blvd., Rocky River, on Saturday, April 18, 2026. Check-in begins at 1:30pm, with the program running from 2:00–4:00pm. Tea and light refreshments will be provided. Registration is strongly recommended due to limited seating. To register call the West Shore church office at 440-333-2255. The facility offers ample parking and is wheelchair accessible.

"To the Heights" Father & Son Retreat

Fathers and sons in grades 7–12 are invited to a special day of faith, fellowship, and formation at the "To the Heights" Father & Son Retreat, inspired by the spirit and witness of St. Pier Giorgio Frassati. The retreat will take place on Sunday, April 26, from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe. The day will include dynamic speakers, games, discussions, Eucharistic Adoration, and opportunities for fathers and sons to grow together in faith. Lunch and helpful resources will also be provided. The retreat will feature keynote speaker Elvis Grbac, former NFL quarterback. The cost is $35 per person, and scholarships are available. To learn more or register, visit tobcle.org. For questions, contact rlewis@tobcle.org.

BIRDIES FOR BABIES: TopGolf Edition

Swing into action for a great cause! The 6th Annual Birdies for Babies is Thursday, April 30 at Topgolf. Enjoy two hours of golf, exciting raffle prizes, and fellowship—all while supporting Zelie's Home and the women and children it serves. Golfers $100 | Spectators $50.

Sponsorships available. Register at www.zelieshome.org/events or scan the QR code

Ministry to the Incarcerated

"I was in prison and you visited me... Truly I tell you, just as you did it to the one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." - Matthew 25

Do you have a heart for serving others? The Jail Ministry team serving at the Lorain County Jail is looking for compassionate, committed volunteers to share God's love with incarcerated individuals through prayer, conversation, and spiritual support. Whether you're gifted in listening, teaching, praying, or simply showing up—even working from home—there's a place for you. No experience necessary, just a willing spirit and a heart for restoration. To learn more, contact Michelle Tibbetts at 216-906-2886 or tibbettslaw@gmail.com

Stirring Up Hope is coming to St. James!

Stirring Up Hope is a collaborative soup initiative launched by Old Stone Church (soon to be called First Presbyterian Church of Cleveland) and Edwins Restaurant. It is currently served weekly on Wednesdays from 11-1 at five locations, including Old Stone Church and Church of the Covenant in Cleveland Heights. St. James has been accepted as the sixth location, and we will be serving the first Wednesday of the month from 11-1. Edwins provides the artisan soup and volunteers manage the distribution. The initiative aims to provide meals, foster community, and offer kindness. We are provided with the soup, bagels, spoons, and bowls with lids. Beginning Wednesday, April 1, we will be outside at the bottom of the steps to St. James dishing out soup and kindness. If you are interested in volunteering please contact Mary Gannon 216-401-8762, or Lauren Nowakowski, 201-370-4405. We are especially in need of a volunteer(s) who can carry the kettle from Andrews Hall to the front of St. James at 10AM and return it at 1PM. We also need volunteers to serve the soup. And all are invited to stop by on April 1.

Divine Mercy Sunday Devotions – St. Luke Parish

All are invited to gather at St. Luke Parish next Sunday at 3:00pm for the celebration of Divine Mercy Devotions,.

Together, we will enter into the Lord's mercy through the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, entrusting our lives and our world to the inexhaustible love poured forth from His Sacred Heart.

In a world marked by unrest and uncertainty, this devotion stands as a quiet but powerful response – an encounter with mercy that restores, heals, and renews. The hour of 3:00pm, recalling the moment of Christ's death, becomes a doorway into divine compassion.

All are welcome. Come and receive the mercy that never ceases.
