6th Sunday of Easter

John 14:15-21

In my family, we can hardly speak about orphans without tears. My father was adopted as a baby. He frequently told us stories of how his parents welcomed him not just into their home but into their hearts. It was never merely a relocation or a legal transaction. It was the joy of being chosen, of receiving a family, a name, and a place where he belonged forever. Even in his later years, recalling that gift still moves him to tears of tender gratitude.

That is the kind of tenderness behind Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:18) He is going away, but not abandoning us. Instead, he sends us the Advocate, the Holy Spirit — his own Spirit, shared with the Father — who dwells in us. Through the Spirit, Christ is present in us, and we are present in him. His Spirit gives us a home and a family.

We deepen this knowledge in the sacraments, in prayer, and in the daily life of the Church. The Spirit is the bond of belonging, the power that makes us God's sons and daughters, not spiritual orphans. And this is not a one-time event. There is always a deeper outpouring of the Spirit available to us, a fresh appropriation of the promise that we are never abandoned.

If only we could be as grateful as my dad is for his adoption, realizing that we have been adopted by God Himself. In Christ, we are never left as orphans.

— Father John Muir

HISTORIC ST. JAMES BOOK

The Church of St. James is known as one of the most exotic sacred art structures in northeast Ohio, both inside and out. The acclaimed book "Historic St. James, The Art and Architecture of a Landmark Church" is a celebration of the myriad architectural features and decorative arts of St. James. It is published by The Friends of St. James, Inc.

This work is a collaboration by distinguished architectural historian, the late Tim Barrett, an authority on the art and architecture of Greater Cleveland's diverse houses of worship, and Lad Trepal, noted Cleveland commercial photographer and member of St. James. The book would be a great gift for all who appreciate stunning church art and architecture or who have worshipped in this sacred space.

Price: $25 + shipping if mailed. Cash or checks, only, please. To purchase your copy, contact Tom Hayden at: 216-798-5523 (text or leave a message) or by email, tahayden42@livecom. Please make checks payable to Friends of St. James, Inc. All proceeds from the sale of these books go to the maintenance and restoration of St. James Church.

YOUNG ADULT CATHOLIC SOFTBALL – SUMMER 2026

Two opportunities. One mission: community, friendship, and faith lived on the field.

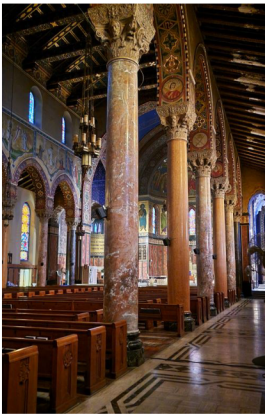

Cathletics Young Adult Church Softball League

Registration is now open for the Cathletics 2026 Young Adult Church Softball League. This co-ed league is open to players of all skill levels ages 18–39 and is a great way to meet new people while enjoying friendly competition. Games are played on Sundays from late June through mid-August on Cleveland's west side. Individuals, small groups, and full teams are all welcome. Learn more at CathleticsCLE.com or contact Cathleticscle@gmail.com.

Diocesan Young Adult Co-Ed Softball League

The Diocese of Cleveland also offers a Young Adult Softball League focused on fellowship, prayer, and competition. Games are held Sunday afternoons (12:30–7:00pm) throughout June and July, concluding with a championship in August. All games take place at St. John Bosco Field, 6480 Pearl Rd., Parma. Teams gather in prayer before and after each game, grounding the season in faith and community. Registration is $40 and includes league participation and scheduling. Sign up at dioceseofcleveland.org/events/2026/04/01/diocesan-young-adult-co-ed-softball-league-2026.

Step onto the field this summer. Build friendships that last longer than the season.

GUIDED TOURS | LAST SUNDAYS OF THE MONTH, AFTER 10:30 MASS

We are delighted to offer guided tours of St. James Church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all, Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.

Artists as Influencers

Monday, May 11 | 6 – 7:30 pm

George Matejka

Dr. Matejka will discuss how, over the centuries, artwork has helped to build our faith-tradition by influencing our understanding of biblical persons and events. He will highlight several pieces from the collection of our own Cleveland Museum of Art, as well as art from museums and churches around the world.

In our journey together we will explore three paths that artists have followed in their efforts to portray biblical figures and events. One path is to “fill in” details when the biblical text is silent. The bible does not mention a donkey, but the artistic tradition almost always shows Mary riding one during the Flight into Egypt. A second path involves artists following the church’s teachings at the time. Because St. Jerome had (mis-)translated the biblical text, Michelangelo sculpted Moses with horns protruding from his head. The third path involves the artist portraying himself in his paintings. Rembrandt paints himself as one of the executioners at Jesus’ crucifixion, inviting his viewers to do likewise.

A deeper issue here is to what degree can artists be considered as evangelizers and catechists of the faith?

$20 Please register in advance.
