7th Sunday of Easter

John 17:1-11a

Not long after my brother's first child was born, a beautiful little girl named Mary Elise, I asked him what it was like. Was he nervous? Overwhelmed? He said, "When I first held her, I was in such shock. I think I just said, 'I am your dad. I am your dad.'" That moment marked a deep transformation for him. He was not just holding a baby; he was stepping into a new identity. Over the years, I have seen him live his fatherhood with quiet sacrifice, joy, and faithfulness. It started with that moment of truth.

This, I propose, is a glimpse of what Jesus means when he prays, "Consecrate them in the truth." (John 17:17) To be consecrated is to be set apart in love, not taken out of the world. Consecration sends us into it with a new identity, always one that binds us to him and to others in love. Our bond to Jesus and others is the deep truth that he continually renews.

Whenever we speak deep truths about ourselves, we experience this renewal: "I have sinned;" "I need help;" "I forgive you;" "I take you as my husband;" "I believe in one God..." Whether in confession, in the liturgy, or in a recovery group, truth heals and transforms.

And the deepest truth of all? That we belong to the Risen and Ascended Christ. Our lives are no longer just ours. We are his and he is ours.

Name one truth you need to step into more deeply, about yourself, someone else, or God. Maybe put it on a note on your mirror. Let that truth consecrate you this week.

— Father John Muir

We will be taking up a donation to help these workers adjust to Cleveland, please bring a small donation or gift card , or you can drop something off at the rectory

Ordinations to the Priesthood

This weekend, the Diocese of Cleveland joyfully celebrates the ordination of new priests who will begin their ministry in service to Christ and His Church. As these men offer their lives for the proclamation of the Gospel, the celebration of the Sacraments, and the care of God's people, we ask all parishioners to keep them in prayer as they begin this sacred vocation. May the Lord strengthen them with fidelity, humility, and zeal for souls. Let us also continue to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life throughout our Diocese, that more men and women may courageously respond to the call of Christ and serve His Church with generous hearts.

PRAYING for our ADULT CHILDREN

What can we do for our adult children who have left the practice of our Catholic faith?

If this question speaks to you and you want to learn more, join us for an evening of prayer and dialogue as we explore the cultural landscape of adult children and faith practice.

Habitat for Humanity needs Volunteers for the Pope Leo Village

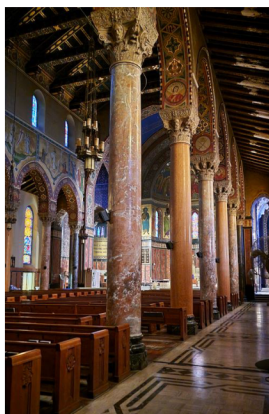

Greater Cleveland Habitat for Humanity is seeking volunteers for Pope Leo Village, a new affordable housing initiative in Elyria inspired by Pope Leo's call to serve others through faith and action. Volunteers of all skill levels are invited to participate in both construction and non-construction opportunities throughout 2026. Upcoming opportunities include May and June Wall Builds, community "Rock the Block" neighborhood projects, and a fall Rake-a-Thon. Many opportunities are open to ages 14 and older, and no construction experience is necessary for most projects. This is a meaningful opportunity to put faith into action and help build homes, community, and hope. To learn more or sign up, contact Kim Pride at kpride@clevelandhabitat.org or 216-255-2651.

HISTORIC ST. JAMES BOOK

The Church of St. James is known as one of the most exotic sacred art structures in northeast Ohio, both inside and out. The acclaimed book "Historic St. James, The Art and Architecture of a Landmark Church" is a celebration of the myriad architectural features and decorative arts of St. James. It is published by The Friends of St. James, Inc. This work is a collaboration by distinguished architectural historian, the late Tim Barrett, an authority on the art and architecture of Greater Cleveland's diverse houses of worship, and Lad Trepal, noted Cleveland commercial photographer and member of St. James. The book would be a great gift for all who appreciate stunning church art and architecture or who have worshipped in this sacred space. Price: $25 + shipping if mailed. Cash or checks, only, please. To purchase your copy, contact Tom Hayden at: 216-798-5523 (text or leave a message) or by email, tahayden42@livecom. Please make checks payable to Friends of St. James, Inc. All proceeds from the sale of these books go to the maintenance and restoration of St. James Church.

GUIDED TOURS | LAST SUNDAYS OF THE MONTH, AFTER 10:30 MASS

We are delighted to offer guided tours of St. James Church after the 10:30 Mass on the last Sundays of the month. John Alfes will meet with interested parishioners and guests by the altar. Our church presents one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the nation. From the moment you enter, you are immersed in a devotional atmosphere shaped by its architecture, spiritual symbolism, and masterful craftsmanship. Learn and marvel at the rare

Portasanta marble pillars, the portraits in stained glass, the biblical stories in murals, and more. Every detail speaks of faith, reverence, and divine majesty. At the heart of it all, Christ, enthroned above the main altar, invites us to worship. The goal is to enhance your worship and spiritual life at St. James.
